GERMAN INDUSTRY WORKED WITH A WILL TO KEEP FIGHTING FORCES SUPPORTED, SAYS LUDENDORFF

Our industry kept our fighting forces supported; it must always have the honor and credit of that. When it was once informed what demands were to be made on it, it went to work of its own accord to fulfill its task, and gave ever better and better results. That it feared to itself a correspondingly good reward from the government was only reasonable in view of the great risk and the large capital outlay involved in fulfilling our demands; just as reasonable, in fact, as the workers' desire for good wages.

I opposed, if only in the soldiers' interests, all extravagance and selfishness. It was the duty of the government to insure by all necessary measures that our economic position was not made any worse by the enormous demands of the Hindenburg programme. Taxation could only serve as a partial remedy.

Profiteering was the deadliest sin, and our inability to eradicate it was a matter of the greatest regret to me from the point of view of morale at home and in the field. Many times I made an effort to get to the bottom of it. The war profiteer is a loathsome phenomenon, and he and the corruption of his influence have done us incalculable harm.

The hopes which I placed on the War Office for obtaining all the available man-power, were not fulfilled. Even this office seemed to look at all such questions from the point of view of domestic politics, instead of placing before everything the needs of the army. I had also hoped that it would succeed in bringing employers and workmen together, for the desire for rapprochement was present in many quarters.

Efforts were also made in the occupied territories and in Poland and Legation to stimulate war work. This was only possible to a limited extent, owing to the fluctuations in the war position which we had to reckon with the shortage of labor.

There were also at times other difficulties. For example, the Belgian workmen in the huge small arms industries of the Liege district were only ready to work if they received an assurance that the weapons they manufactured would not be used by German troops on the western front. This assurance could not be given.

We were thus compelled to remove from many places the machinery which was suitable for war purposes and transport it to Germany, where it could be put to useful ends.

The obtaining and distribution of raw materials in Germany was entrusted to the safe hands of Colonel Knuth, who in his department worked with the greatest proper to this great war. He achieved great things in the direction of getting supplies out of the occupied territories.

The supply of materials from neutral and allied countries was in the control of a special department of the Prussian Ministry of War, with which Colonel Knuth worked in close liaison.

And the People Suffered
Colonel Knuth gave the army all that it urgently needed, and in the most efficient manner. He had regard to our dependence on foreign countries; nothing more could be done. The supply of raw material was assured far ahead. The people, however, suffered considerably. Clothing and food were very short. The rationing was high, and the necessities of life were in short supply.

Our dependence on foreign countries had grave effects, and I attached great importance to the production of substitute textile fibers. I instructed Lieutenant Colonel Schmidt-Neder to investigate the matter. He put himself in touch with the various government offices and with the textile industry, and he is mainly responsible for the success which was achieved. (Paper clothing was one of the results of this inquiry.)

I hope that his industry will bring benefit to his country. It may be an incalculable blessing for the German people, if it learns how to grow for itself the products hitherto imported from abroad.

To obtain the various raw materials a large number of semi-official companies were established. I was not in a position to judge whether, and to what extent they were necessary, but it is quite clear that in operation they were productive of infinite friction.

Railways Badly Strained
The question of transport lay at the root of all questions of keeping up the fight at home. This question of transport was a question of railway cars, and staff, and was closely bound up with the coal supply. Minister von Breitenbach sacrificed a great deal in every direction for the need of the army.

Both personnel and material were strained to the utmost, and the locomotives in the first places matters were improved somewhat by returning factories to the work of locomotive and wagon construction. The supreme army command also helped the Minister of Public Works in other ways, even, although with great reluctance, by releasing men to such an extent as to weaken the army.

In many respects we had prepared for a short war, and in this and other matters had to reshape ourselves to meet a long one. Military demands on the railways at home still remained very high. We had secured the whole of the Belgian locomotives, and the material taken in North France, but these were not nearly enough. The material taken in Russia could not be used, owing to the difference of gauge.

Romania Got His Cars
Our allies also laid great burdens on our stock of engines and wagons. On the Austro-Hungarian railways there were many hundred German locomotives and some ten thousand German wagons. Bulgarians and Rumanians, too, received both men and material from us. We had just recently captured material in Romania, but the enemy had on the other hand, taken several thousand German wagons to Moldavia and kept them there.

The occupied districts, with their loss of 100,000 men, required an army of railways and material for the maintenance of the supreme army command.

The supreme army command, through the Director of Railways, made a series of proposals to the minister for procuring greater modernization in the use of material at home. As a result, the limitation of traffic, similar steps were taken in the occupied districts.

The limitations, which were practically, and in deed, impossible, of full realization under the then conditions, had ultimately to be carried into effect under the oppressive armistice conditions and the revolution.

It may be realized how strained the transport situation was at this time when I state that power and explosive factories, on 17th November, were closed down for a period of five days on end. There was coal to be had, but the railways could not bring it to them. Things became so bad that I had to have daily reports on the condition in the power factories.

Only Lacking in Germany
The existence of the various German railway administrations made the problem essentially more difficult. We suffered not only in the greater multiplicity prior to the war, and for not having insisted on all the states keeping to the same standards. Bavaria, for example, had considerably fewer heavy locomotives per kilometre than Prussia, and the spare parts required by the two countries were different. A great deal could have been done to improve matters without any alteration of the imperial constitution.

Transport difficulties were also increased by the fact that there was no unity of control or management of canal and river navigation. Up to this time it had not been developed in accordance with what was urgently necessary, and these rivers had to be made good. A special inland water transport department was established, and at my request the Admiralty assisted us by recruiting the necessary men.

Transport conditions, which had been very bad in the winter of 1918-19, improved later. They were severely strained in the winter of 1917-18, but not so badly as in the spring. The Minister of Labor for his part made every effort to do what was necessary to meet the situation.

Coal and Iron Show Power
Coal and iron are the basis of all war industry. We were able to improve our position considerably, even in our dealings with the neutrals, by means of the Longwy and Briey basins (seized from France at the beginning of the war), the Belgian coal fields, and parts of the coal areas of Northern France and of Poland which later we managed jointly with Austria-Hungary. We began to develop coal in northeastern Serbia and attempted to stimulate Turkey to make better use of her deposits.

We gave our allies coal and refused to return anything but quantities from Austria-Hungary for Saxony and Bavaria. In return for coal and iron, neutral countries gave us, among other things, foodstuffs and money to buy raw materials, besides horses. Thus did coal and iron show their power.

The shortage of coal at home became considerably more acute in the winter of 1916-17; it had a serious effect on the morale and called for strong measures. The coal supply in Germany was not properly controlled and output had fallen off.

I proposed to the Chancellor in February, 1917, the appointment of a special coal commissioner. After long discussions, the appointment of a special coal commissioner, Minister of Railways, was made. The first person who succeeded in bringing order into the coal question, or, at any rate, in overcoming the greatest causes of friction, and achieving a fair compromise between the demands for coal for domestic use, for light and power, for agriculture and industry, for the railways and the navy.

Dared Not Weaken Army
I found it very difficult in May and June, 1918, when still suffering from the great impression made upon me by the great Entente offensive in the west and the extraordinary losses which this caused us to weaken the army further by releasing fifty thousand workmen at his request. This should be remembered while reading serious. The frontier districts did not obtain sufficient for the winter. The peasants had to pass the long winter evenings in the dark, which was very bad for their spirits. It is characteristic of Germany that little more was ever said about this great inconvenience. For a time some of our transport difficulties were due to the obvious fact that this involved hardship for the local populations, but equally obvious that these steps had to be taken.

Every intelligent person will admit that in many cases we might have acted in more practical fashion. The task was, however, at once novel and peculiarly difficult to grasp owing to the changing needs of the war.

WHY MAKE THE ANNUAL STRUGGLE WITH RHEUMATISM

Nature Gives a Cry for Help That S. S. S. Can Answer With the Right Treatment.

This is the season when the damp, cold, changing weather of winter intensifies the pains and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism.

Rheumatism never comes by accident. It is in the blood and system before a pain is felt.

The symptoms of this disease are almost unnoticed at first, so insidiously do they steal over the body, gradually the little pains and stiffness increase until they develop great inconvenience day by day, and if neglected or improperly treated will become chronic.

Not only is Rheumatism the most painful of all diseases with its swollen, stiff joints, throbbing muscles and stinging nerves, but it is a formidable and dangerous trouble.

Every day the poison remains in the system the disease gets a firmer hold and the patient is won a helpless cripple.

Of course, if this painful disease was on the surface only, you might reasonably expect to get relief by the use of lotions, liniments and other local applications. But the source of the disease is in your blood, the tiny disease germs find lodgment there and multiply by the millions, scattered by means of the blood circulating throughout your entire system.

In order to get permanent relief from this dreadful disease, the blood must be purified, and all irritating matter removed from the circulation.

No remedy does this so quickly as S. S. S., the best blood purifier on the market today, that has stood the test of time with fifty years of success behind it, and more popular today than it has ever been before.

S. S. S. not only contains purifying and tonic properties, but solvent qualities and, being purely vegetable, will not injure the system as do medicines which contain potash and other mineral ingredients.

While cleansing the blood of all poison, it builds up the system and relieves the sufferer of the nagging pains of Rheumatism and, is the one remedy that is so useful in repairing the damage done by impoverished blood.

Don't wait for your trouble to become chronic, but begin the use of S. S. S. today and purge the blood of the germs of Rheumatism.

We maintain a medical department for the benefit of all who are afflicted and our Chief Medical adviser, who is familiar with all forms of Rheumatism, will gladly give you advice without charge as to the treatment of your own case. Address Medical Director, 11 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

In spite of all our needs, we acted with the leniency that was carried almost too far, when carried with the extreme steps taken at home. Germany had to surrender her church bells, but, as a consolation made by Chancellor von Hertling to the Belgians, Belgium was allowed to retain here. It was the protest of the Pope that saved the Belgian church bells.

The occupied territories were of great help to us both at the front and at home. The getting of materials from these districts, employed large bodies of men, just as war work at home did, but we had to make this sacrifice to life.

Our Profit from all Sources

The American Public does not believe all it reads. It insists on being shown.

When Swift & Company says its profits are only a fraction of a cent per pound, many believe we are not telling the whole story—that there are hidden profits.

Here Are The Facts:

Our net profit on our entire business for the year 1918 amounted to only 1.76 cents per dollar of sales, or less than one-half cent per pound, and

1. Included profits from hides and all other by-products.
2. Included profits from all sundry side-lines.
3. Included profits on all subsidiary corporations.
4. To sum up—it included the entire profit from every source of revenue in which Swift & Company has any interest. There are no other profits.

Furthermore our accounts have been checked and certified annually by leading public accounting firms.

Swift & Company is sincerely trying to get the facts before the public. If you have any questions regarding our business—write us—and we will do our best to answer them. In discussing the packing business be sure you have the facts and that you are not unintentionally spreading misinformation.

If you get the facts we have no doubt as to the verdict.

Sues For Divorce

Charging neglect, a divorce is sought by Albert Bailey, shoemaker. In an action filed in common pleas court Tuesday through Attorney T. C. Beatty, against Ada Bailey, 1139 Ninth street, whom he married Feb. 28, 1914, in this city. In his petition Bailey complains that the defendant neglected to care for her household duties, abandoned him and refused absolutely to live with him. They have one child, Dolores, aged 8, now with the mother.

Big Deal Is Closed

HUNTINGTON, Nov. 10.—In a transaction completed yesterday afternoon, R. P. Alshuler, Thomas W. Harvey and Charles J. Miller purchased sixty feet of 1123-25 Third avenue from Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Northcott. The consideration is said to have been approximately $20,000. The property includes the business building occupied by Brown Brothers, wholesale confectioners.

Cunningham Out On Bond

HUNTINGTON, Nov. 10.—Glenn Cunningham, Jr., accused of murdering his mother, was freed on $10,000 bond to await the action of the next grand jury, by Judge D. E. Matthews in common pleas court yesterday. E. H. Darnell and Frank Higgs, attorneys for the defendant, contended the death of Mrs. Mary A. Cunningham was purely accidental.

PROPOSE 25 YEAR FRANCHISE

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 10.—The Toledo Railway and Light Company, driven from the streets two weeks ago by an ouster ordinance approved by the voters, renewed its efforts today to secure signatures to a petition for submitting to the voters a 25 year franchise, which provides for resumption of car service on a cost-plus plan. Details of the ordinance were announced as providing for straight 3 cent fare, with one cent extra for a transfer. The rate of fare when the cars were withdrawn on November 8 by Henry E. Doherty, was six cents and two cents for a transfer.

TIGHTEN COAL DELIVERIES

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 10.—Tightening up of coal deliveries in the Pittsburgh district began today, following the losing of an appeal by the Pittsburgh coal distribution committee of the United States railroad administration asking consumers to use the strictest economy in the consumption of coal. The appeal was made when it developed that the district has been drawing heavily upon the supply of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Now this source has almost ceased to exist, owing to the failure of mines operating in those states. Union miners in the Pittsburgh district continue idle.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get one ounce of Paracetamol (double strength), and add to it one fourth pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

TO REPORT ON CONFERENCES

Y. W. O. A. conferences which have recently been held and attended by local representatives are to be brought home to all those who are interested at a meeting this afternoon, Blue Triangle Room, Gallia street, at 2 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend the meeting which promises to be interesting. The National Conference held at St. Louis will be told of by Mrs. Frank Pike, who was the local representative. The first conference was held at Columbus and was attended by Miss Carol Simmons, recreational director, who will tell of the plans made at that time for Young People's Activities.

Of the Whaling Conference the following women will report: Mrs. J. H. Coleman, Miss Emma Johnson and Mrs. George Thomas.

"Gee-Whiz! How it Hurts! — The Pain in My Foot!"

"Sometimes it is in my arm. Merciful Heaven, how my back hurts in the morning!" It's all due to an over-abundance of that poison called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is "keep the kidneys in good order."

"Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Anuric." This can be obtained at almost any drug store, in tablet form, and will dissolve uric acid as hot coffee dissolves sugar.

You know that before an insurance company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test your water, and report whether you are a good risk. You should send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected.

When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from headache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night, take heed, before too late. Get Anuric (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. You will feel full of vim, vigor and vitality, instead of tired, dragged-out and blue. Anuric is many times more potent than lithia, dissolves and carries away uric acid and other poisons from the system. Ask your nearest druggist for Anuric, or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package.

Her new Arcturion picture, is based upon the famous novel of Gertrude Atherton which was recently published and at a bound has won popular favor. The photoplay will be shown at the "Temple" tonight.

In the story, Helene's mother is the daughter of a gambler living near Monte Carlo and when he is killed in a quarrel, leaves his daughter, Helene, penniless. Helene places her infant daughter in a convent and later marries a gambler with whom she comes to the United States.

Helene tries of the convent when she is fifteen and makes her escape. She is brought to New York by her guardian and enters an aristocratic household where she meets the son of her employer. She develops the gambling habit and in her blood and this leads to highly dramatic developments. Miss Ferguson plays the roles of Helene, Mme. Delano and Helene, daughter of Mme. Delano.

The management guarantees this picture to be one of the best ever shown at the temple and there will be no increase in prices.

At The Strand

Promises of marriage are often merely traps. See Evelyn Nesbit at the Strand tonight in a play that will reach you all, "My Little Sister".

My tale promises of marriage, the agents of white slavers often lure young girls to ruin. They entice the innocents to secret meetings in a strange city, and then either basely desert them or force them to earn money for them on the streets.

It was not a fake marriage proposal that lured innocent Bettina and her sister, but an equally infamous ruse. Their tragic story is the theme of a great sociological photoplay, in which Evelyn Nesbit is starring. It is entitled "My Little Sister," and may be seen at the Strand tonight.

Another of these good Sunshine comedies will be shown also and don't forget Alice Joyce in "The Third Degree" tomorrow.

Drive Uric Acid From Your System

AMBITION SALTS

Most people need an occasional remedy to make the eyes bright, the skin clear, the stomach strong, the blood pure and the liver and kidneys healthy.

If you're out of sorts, lack the vim, vigor and "pep" you'd like to have, try AMBITION SALTS—the new pleasant, refreshing and tonic.

In the morning, cleanse your system of dangerous uric acid "poison" which is responsible for so much indigestion, biliousness, headache, acid stomach, rheumatism and kidney and liver trouble. Forget the ailments and miseries that make life a burden and be your old real self again.

A large bottle of AMBITION SALTS costs only 60c at Wurster Bros. and money will be refunded if you are not satisfied. Try this. It's surely worth while to feel new, vigorous, to have the energy which makes you go to work eagerly, to accomplish to your satisfaction what you have to do, to feel again the glow of perfect health, strength and vigor.

THEATRICAL

At The Sun

"Fun in A Boarding House" is the brand new episode of comic opera which is the offering of the Columbia Revue at the Sun, today and tomorrow, affording a complete change of program.

In addition to new songs, new dances, new comedy situations and new environment, there also will be new scenery, costumes, stage settings and electrical effects, entirely different from those of Tuesday. It is declared that "Fun in A Boarding House" is one of the funniest little episodes of comic opera ever presented at the Sun.

The offering consumed a solid hour and it is declared that there is something delightful in every second of that time.

For today and tomorrow, the motion picture offering at the Sun in addition to the miniature musical comedy program, is "The Master Man," a super triumph by Pathé, magnificently acted and directed.

Designed especially for ladies and children, "The Blockhead" will be the musical comedy offering at the Sun Saturday, matinee at which time bargain prices will prevail.

OBITUARY

Funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Licht

Mrs. Elizabeth Licht, who died Tuesday morning, will have her funeral Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from the home of the son, William Licht, 1429 Park Avenue, Rev. R. B. Cartwright being in charge of the services. Burial will be in Greenwood.

Mrs. Florence Harmon

Having come here two months ago for medical treatment, Mrs. Florence Harmon, wife of Walter Harmon Quincy, Ky., passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. L. Smith, 210 Vine Street, New Boston, at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

Mrs. Harmon, besides her grief-stricken husband, leaves six children, the oldest of which is 12 years of age. They are Arabel, Joseph, James, Walter, Jr., Margaret and the six months old baby, Clay Herriman.

Arrangements have been made to take the body to Quincy and have the funeral services in the Christian church there, burial to be in the Methodist cemetery.

John S. Callahan

Death at 8:15 o'clock last night claimed John S. Callahan, a caterer in the Whitaker-Glennier plant, who passed to the Great Beyond at his home, 2520 Gallia street, last night following a six days' illness of typhoid fever and pneumonia. News of the death of Mr. Callahan will come as a shock to his friends, as his condition was not considered dangerous. He became ill last Thursday with the fever and later developed pneumonia, which caused death. The deceased was 35 years of age. He came here from Huntington about two years ago and became a resident of East Portsmouth. Three months ago he bought a house at 2520 Gallia street.

Mr. Callahan is survived by his wife, Garnet, a five year old daughter, Theodosia, his mother, Mrs. Fannie Callahan, and five brothers and a sister: E. F. and Robert of Hot Springs, Ark.; E. C. and Earl of Dallas, Texas; and Henry and Mrs. Wally Grayson, of Huntington. His father, J. H. Callahan, died some time ago.

The deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World, the Knights of Maccabees and the Steelworkers' Union. He had a wide circle of friends who will learn of his death with genuine sorrow.

The body will be taken to Huntington, where the funeral will be held on the arrival of his brothers from Arkansas.

Funeral of C. C. Turner

Funeral services for the late C. C. Turner who died Monday of typhoid fever at his home, 2001 Sixth street (near), were held this morning at the home, Rev. J. E. Dierlert having charge of the services. The sad circumstance of Mr. Turner's death is that the family, hopeful of success in Portsmouth, had moved here from Clifton, Ky., but six weeks ago. Their misfortune and loss has quite overwhelmed them.

Mr. Turner is survived by his wife, Ida Turner, and the following children: Darby, Dorcy, Aloisio and Charles. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elliott, parents of the deceased and Mrs. Emma Eldridge of Riley, Ky., a sister attended the funeral services. Mrs. Lawrence Bartlett, Detroit, is also a sister.

Bureau of Community Service workers have taken care of the case.

W. H. Murray

The funeral of W. H. Murray, who died at his home, Lynn, Tygart Creek, Ky., Monday night was held today with burial at Lynn.

Mr. Murray was a farmer and was 62 years old when called by death. He is survived by his wife and four children, one son, James Murray, living in Wisconsin.

DEMAND FOR TANLAC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

FAME HAS SPREAD OVER THE NATION

Never before perhaps in all history has the demand for a proprietary medicine ever approached the wonderful record being made by Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results in all parts of the country.

The old illustration of the people dropped into the pool best describes the marvelous growth of the ever-increasing demand and its fame has swept over the entire nation like a great tidal wave.

From coast to coast and from the Gulf to the great lakes Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it and have pronounced it the greatest medicine ever given to the people, and the only explanation of Tanlac's triumph in the medical world is Tanlac's true worth. Back of Tanlac's triumph in the drug stores is Tanlac's triumph in the homes. It is the people's medicine and the people themselves have made Tanlac what it is.

No matter where you go Tanlac is a household word and it is unquestionably the most widely talked of medicine in the world today. One person invariably tells another about a medicine that helps them and in this way scores or even hundreds may hear of Tanlac as a direct result of one bottle in a single home.

When asked to explain this record-breaking demand for Tanlac, Mr. G. F. Willis, the international distributor of Tanlac, said:

"There can be but one possible explanation and it can be told in one word—merit. That tells the whole story. No preparation, no matter how extensively advertised, could possibly meet with such phenomenal success unless it possessed absolute merit and extraordinary powers as a medicine."

WILLIS EXPLAINS ENORMOUS SALES

"These enormous sales," says G. F. Willis, international distributor of Tanlac, "mean but one thing and that is—merit. Tanlac is well advertised. It is true, but such a large and rapidly growing demand could not be brought about by advertising alone. It is what the neighbors say that counts. One bottle is sold in a neighborhood through advertising, but ten more are sold in that community after the first bottle produces results and the neighbors say, 'People are always willing to talk about their ailments, but they are more than willing to tell others of the medicine that helps them. It's something they couldn't keep to themselves if they tried, for the impulse to sympathize with neighbors and want to help them in one of the strongest as well as one of the best gifts in human nature."

"Tanlac is producing these results he continued, 'and that is why nothing on earth can keep it out of the homes of the people. It is not only the most talked of medicine in the world today, but in my opinion, it is the best and most efficient. And, although prominent officials and leaders throughout the country have endorsed Tanlac, its greatest prestige is firmly based on the unqualified endorsement of the masses of the people."

"Not a day nor a week passes that does not bring hundreds of statements from the people concerning the good this medicine is doing and testing the circumstances of remarkable cases that would convince the most skeptical. These are alone sufficient for Tanlac, but the figures contained in these enormous orders speak eloquently and convincingly of the great good this medicine is doing."

Approximately Twelve Million Bottles Sold and Distributed in Four Years

SUCCESS UNPRECEDENTED

One Million Bottles Sold First Ten Weeks of This Year

More like a tale from the Arabian Nights of old than a record of a modern business reads the story of the marvelous growth and development of Tanlac, which has been the sensation of the drug trade throughout America.

The first bottle of Tanlac to reach the public was sold just a little over four years ago in the thriving little city of Lexington, Ky., where 20,000 bottles of medicine were sold in only a few months time. Since that time there have been sold throughout the United States and Canada approximately 12,000,000 bottles and a romance which has no parallel in the modern business world was begun.

The instant and phenomenal success which Tanlac won in Lexington has been duplicated in practically every large city, small town, village and hamlet in North America, the Province of Ontario, Quebec, Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia have shown due appreciation of Tanlac. Hawaii, Alaska, Cuba, Porto Rico and other American possessions have clamored for Tanlac.

Over 17,000 Bottles a Day

Sales this year had fair to smash all previous records, as the sale for the first ten weeks amounted to over one million bottles. It seems almost incredible, but these are actual figures and such is the record established by this wonderful medicine.

As a matter of fact, the greatest drug firms of the country have voluntarily come forward and stated in plain, cold figures the record breaking sales everywhere, and the following letters from well known wholesale and retail drug firms give ample evidence of the true worth and wide-spread popularity of Tanlac.

BIGGEST THING OF KIND EVER SEEN IN NASHVILLE

In referring to the phenomenal and unprecedented sale of Tanlac in Nashville and throughout the Middle Tennessee section, Mr. Benson Hopper, the managing partner of the Nashville Drug Co., the well known wholesale and retail druggists, and unquestionably the largest drug concern in that section of the State, said:

"I have been closely acquainted with the drug trade in this city for a number of years and in all my experience I have never seen anything in the way of a proprietary medicine that even approached Tanlac as a seller."

"Within only a few weeks' time we sold our original order of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) worth of this medicine and had given Mr. Willis our second order for the same amount. Our total sales to date aggregate 47,208 bottles and I believe I will be entirely safe in saying that these purchases establish a new sales record for Nashville."

"I had heard a great deal of the success Tanlac had achieved in other cities, but I had no idea that the preparation would become so popular in Nashville. In fact, the demand for it has so far exceeded our expectations as to prove a complete revelation."

"Judging from the many repeat sales and expressions of satisfaction from those who have actually tested it and who say they have been benefited from the preparation, Tanlac must, therefore, be something of unusual merit. When it is considered that the demand is confined to only one preparation, the sale is to be considered unprecedented. In fact, it is the biggest thing of its kind ever seen at our store."

Sells 8 Cars In Six Months

Fort Worth, Texas.

G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.:

"Dear Sir:—Replying to your letter beg to advise that our sales on Tanlac have been satisfactory in every way and our relations from a business standpoint have been absolutely perfect."

"Since taking the distributing agency we have sold 157,612 bottles, and have yet to receive our first complaint from a dissatisfied customer."

"Tanlac continues to hold front rank in Alabama, and from present indications it will continue to do so for years to come."

DOSTER NORTHINGTON DRUG CO.

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher & Streich Pharmacy.

TANLAC TO BE SOLD OVER ENTIRE STATE

In only a few weeks' time Tanlac will be placed on sale in practically every large city, town, village and hamlet in the State of Ohio.

A number of samples already have been established in a very limited time, but it is desired by the manufacturers that the distribution be made more complete and far-reaching.

Druggists and dealers who are interested should write or telegraph G. F. Willis, Fourth National Bank Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with pure oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a general action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, head-aches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 10c and 25c.

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, friends, foes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

WANT TO KNOW—I do not know where the publishing company you asked about is located.

Dear Miss Wise—When a young man calls to take a girl for a ride, should she ask him in if she is ready to go, or should they start immediately, if she does ask him in, who should suggest going? ANXIOUS.

When the young man calls he should be invited in while the girl puts on her wraps. If he comes in, sits down and does not seem to know how to suggest going, she might say: "Shall I get my wraps so that we can start?"

Puzzled Girl

I think it would be very nice and friendly if you ask him about his sister. He may have recovered from his deeper feelings for you but perhaps there is a friendship remaining that both of you would enjoy renewing.

Dear Dolly—What do you think of people who leave their washing hanging out over Sunday? I don't think it looks right. Now dear Dolly, please tell what you think.

EAST END READER

I'm surprised you forced that "cleanliness is next to godliness."

Dear Dolly—How should a girl act and dress when she wants to be a chorus girl? I have been a chorus girl once in Columbus, see? I want to be in Portsmouth. I have black curly hair, dark brown eyes, and pink complexion. I am 18 years of age and I would like to stay in Portsmouth but if I don't get on I am going back to Columbus and be a chorus girl.

MISS STRONG COMING BACK

Under Searching Eyes— Do you ever wince inwardly?

An unexpected meeting—a battery of eyes focused upon your face—Can you meet it with composure? Is your skin flawless? Clear, lovely in coloring? Or, is there some blemish that sends out, mercilessly in your own consciousness? Some fault in your complexion that you know observant eyes must take notice of?

There is nothing that so destroys a man's or woman's poise and self-confidence as the consciousness of a complexion at fault. Even a little blemish in some conspicuous place makes you miserably embarrassed. You want to shrink into the background. You lose your confidence, your gaiety. Your very personality is dimmed just when you are most anxious to appear at your best.

Yet this suffering is entirely needless. You need never be miserable and suspicious from such self-consciousness. Almost anyone, by simple, regular hygienic care of the skin, can free her complexion of the defects that so constantly mar an otherwise lovely face.

Blackheads are such a disfigurement. Enlarged nose pores, a skin that will get shiny—These things can be corrected.

Take care of the new skin that is forming every day as old skin dies. Give it every night the right treatment for your particular trouble, and within a week or ten days you will notice a marked improvement.

Take care of the most common skin troubles. Perhaps your skin is constantly being marred by unsightly little blemishes. No doubt you attribute them to something wrong in your blood—but authorities on the skin now agree that in the great majority of cases, these blemishes are caused by bacteria and parasites that are carried into the pores from outside, through dust and fine particles in the air.

How to remove skin blemishes

By using the Woodbury method of cleansing your skin, you can free it from such blemishes.

Just before retiring, wash in your usual way with warm water and Woodbury's Facial Soap, finishing with a dash of cold water. Then dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the cake of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy cream-like lather. Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this and leave it on for ten minutes. Then rinse very carefully with clear hot water, then with cold.

Use this treatment regularly and the blemishes will gradually disappear.

The famous treatment for conspicuous nose pores

Do you know what it is that causes conspicuous nose pores? The pores of the face are not as fine as on other parts of the body. On the nose, especially, there are more fat glands than elsewhere, and there is more activity of the pores.

These pores, if not properly stimulated and kept free from dirt, lose their power to contract properly; they clog up and become enlarged.

Try using this special treatment for conspicuous nose pores, and supplement it with the steady, general use of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Wring a soft cloth from very hot water, rather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose with a piece of ice. Always dry your skin carefully.

Use this treatment every night before retiring, and before long you will notice how this gradually reduces the enlarged pores until they become inconspicuous. But do not expect to change completely in a week a condition resulting from long-continued exposure and neglect.

You will find Woodbury's Facial Soap on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. The booklet containing full directions for all the famous Woodbury treatments is wrapped around each cake.

Get a cake today and begin using it tonight. A 25 cent cake lasts for a month or six weeks of any one of these treatments.

Would you like to have a trial size cake?

For 6 cents we will send you the trial size cake (enough for a week of any Woodbury facial treatment) together with the booklet of treatments. Or for 15 cents we will send you the treatment booklet and samples of Woodbury's Facial Soap, Facial Powder, Facial Cream and Cold Cream. Address The Andrew Jergens Co.,

9950 Spring Grove Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you live in Canada, address The Andrew Jergens Co. Limited, 9950 Sherbrooke St., Perth, Ontario.

That Miss Hilda Strong, former superintendent of Hempstead Hospital, who has been in France attached to the American Red Cross for several months is now on the high seas bound for America to fight the charges made against her of misappropriation of funds while at the head of the institution, was the gist of a telegram received last night by Prosecuting Attorney George W. Sheppard from Clara D. Noyes, Director of the Department of Nursing of the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

Miss Strong sailed from France on Nov. 11, on the steamship LaFrance, and is due to arrive in New York today. She is returning at the urgent request of high officials of the Red Cross in order that she may meet the charges against her in this city. In fact, it is said she was given the alternative of returning to clear herself of the charges or suffer the humiliation of being brought back under extradition, arrangements for which had been completed by local officers through the Department of Justice at Washington.

While the indictment returned against Miss Strong by the April grand jury charges her with embezzling but $700.40, it was disclosed through the Heck and Ferguson examinations that she was some $4,200 short in her accounts during the time she was superintendent of the hospital, a period of more than four years. She resigned in August, 1918, and a short time later became a Red Cross nurse and was sent overseas. For several months she was in France, but of late she has been in Siberia, it is said.

On the advice of local authorities officers will arrest Miss Strong as a fugitive from justice on her arrival in New York and she will promptly be returned to Ohio for trial. Sheriff Hickey is holding himself in readiness to leave for the east on short notice to return the accused to Portsmouth.

Why Is A Headache?

Various Causes for this Common Affliction
Anemia or Bloodlessness a Very Common Cause

Pepto-Mangan Overcomes Anemia and Tends to Prevent Headaches

When one has an occasional headache it is usually due to some transient or passing cause, such as indigestion, eyestrain, over tiredness, etc. When, however, one suffers from frequent periodic headaches there is always some special reason for it. Among the most common of such reasons is Anemia or Bloodlessness. This condition is especially frequent among girls and young women and those whose occupations or habits of life keep them too much indoors. The one important necessity in such cases is to build up the quantity and quality of the weak and watery blood. Good Pepto-Mangan is exceptionally valuable for this purpose. It increases the number and improves the quality of the red blood cells, those vital little bodies which carry nutrition to all parts of the body. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the face, and restores health and strength to the body generally. After a short course of Pepto-Mangan the headaches decrease in frequency and severity, and finally disappear, if they are due to Anemia. Pepto-Mangan may be had either in liquid or tablet form as preferred. When buying Pepto-Mangan be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.

No further trouble is expected. Mr. Beck stated last night, on any of the lines of the Chesapeake & Ohio in West Virginia or Kentucky.

CLAIMS DRY CONTROL 34 STATES

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—The Liberals of the country contend that at no time have more than 34 states actually ratified the Federal amendment. A statement issued at the Cincinnati office of the Ohio Home Rule Association yesterday. "We assert this because we know that in 11 states of the 45, whose general assembly has acted on the amendment, referendum petitions have been filed. We know that on referendum in one of these 11 states, Ohio, the people have rejected the Federal amendment. The people in ten others are to act in November, 1920. Until every factor or branch of the legislature in these ten states functions on the Federal amendment, and the people by right of amendment are a part of the 'Legislature' in these states will not have acted on the Federal amendment, only a part of the 'Legislature'.

Thomas M. Hare, District Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League does not agree with George S. Hawke in the contention that because the people of Ohio voted against Federal ratification, and as Ohio is one of the 30 states named in the Polk proclamation, therefore Federal constitutional prohibition does not go into effect January 16, 1920, as proclaimed and that a new proclamation will be necessary.

To the Chamber of Commerce, Portsmouth, Ohio:
Gentlemen:
The idea of a Chamber of Commerce for Portsmouth, Ohio, is one that should now be in lofty manhood instead of in the embryo. But all things must have a beginning. So I say good-bye to my native city. You may count on me as one who is willing to contribute time, and influence I may have, and what money I can spare, to its success. The only thing I would criticize in the pamphlet you sent me is your claim for population. It seems to me too high. If you want to rank as high as possible on the "Scale of Civic Pride" you should be satisfied not to have it inflated but should be content with it as it really is.

It seems that the school children have had their eyes open, as to the necessities for a better city, a city beautiful, and a healthful city. Personally I can testify that in my own rambling around the country, I have failed to find any city or town that has the beautiful scenery, to be felt as well as seen, as falls to the lot of our citizens.

I am glad to have the opportunity of subscribing to so worthy a cause. So when your committee shall call on or write to me I shall respond, and be proud of writing I have done or may do, for the city of Portsmouth, Ohio, for the city of C. Of C. I am glad to have the opportunity of subscribing to so worthy a cause. COURT HOUSE

Andrew Parker Wants a Divorce
 Andrew Parker, who has been married for three years, is seeking a divorce in the common pleas court today through Attorney George W. Sheppard, against his wife, Mrs. Parker, who she married March 5, 1919.

In her petition the plaintiff further charges Parker with neglect and cruelty, declaring that he chokes her and beats her, and that he is a drunkard and a gambler. A copy of the petition was served today on Parker at the county jail where he is confined on a larceny charge.

Judge Commits
 Although the court of appeals today concluded the hearing of its docket for the fall term in Scioto county, Judge Thomas W. Walters, William H. Skelton and Edwin D. Sayre will remain in the city the remainder of the week in consultation on cases. Harry B. Grace, of Jackson official stenographer of the court, accompanied the judges here.

Small Salaries of Judge and Solicitor
 The county commissioners today, on the recommendation of Prosecuting Attorney George W. Sheppard, adopted a resolution fixing the amount to be paid by the county as an annual salary for the judge of the new Municipal court at $1,500, which, together with the $2,000 a year allowed by council, brings the total of the yearly salary which Judge-elect, Horace L. Small will receive, up to $3,500.

Under the same resolution, City Solicitor S. Anselm Skelton, was allowed $500 a year by the county for acting as prosecutor in the new court. Skelton was recently granted an increase in salary from $1,200 to $1,500 by council, which, with the additional allowance by the county boosts his annual salary to $2,000.

It was pointed out by Prosecutor Sheppard that the money paid out to these officials as salaries will come back to the county in the way of fees assessed in state cases. Judge-elect Small having announced that it will be his policy to divide the revenue derived from criminal prosecutions between the county and city, at least, to such an extent as to reimburse the county for the salary allowances to the judge and prosecutor.

Court of Appeals Finishes Docket
 The Court of Appeals this morning finished the hearing of its docket for the fall term in Scioto county, taking cases submitted under adjournment and in two others the court will, on Thursday morning pass on motions to dismiss appeals. One of these cases is that of Ida Brane against John Brane, on appeal from that part of Judge Thomas' decision relating to the custody of the 12 year old son of the litigants and the other is that of the Sciotoville Board of Education against the New Boston Board of Education, able to sleep good for years and during an injunction suit brought in the county court to stop the distribution of certain school funds claimed by the plaintiff and which was dismissed by Judge Thomas.

The case submitted to the court this morning was that of Margaret Hickman against Marion Ebert, in which the plaintiff prosecuted error on the question of the amount allowed her by the court below in her husband's proceedings against the defendant. It was contended by Attorney Henry T. Bannan that the sum of $550 allowed by the court was inadequate and insufficient and asked that the judgment be set aside. Mr. Bannan declared that it was a custom for judges in this common pleas jurisdiction to allow $500 to $200 in such proceedings and then asserted it was an abuse of judicial discretion. Attorney Harry W. Miller appeared for the defendant.

Other cases submitted were: Nellie Edgington vs Charles Flannigan, error; Attorney Miller, Miller & Seel and A. Z. Blair.

The S. Monroe & Sons Co. vs Harry A. Schirrmann, error; Attorney Miller, Miller & Seel and Miller.

Albert L. Arn vs Mingle Tleman, error; Attorney Miller & Seel.

Charles H. Crowder vs Wesley Euton, error; Attorney Geo. W. Sheppard and F. T. Moreland.

John C. Miller vs The Portsmouth Gas Co., Mollie W. Miller, executrix, was submitted as plaintiff by leave of the court. Attorney Miller, Miller & Seel and A. Z. Blair.

The error cases of Emma Smith, administratrix vs George Morgan and Neil Foundry Co vs George East and others were passed and the appeal case of Fred Ashby against W. D. Chitts was continued at costs of the defendant.

The error case of the State of Ohio vs Admiral Erwin was passed to the Supreme Court.

Edwards to go on Trial
 At the instance of special counsel to Attorney General Price and Prosecutor Sheppard the trial of Charles F. Edwards, prominent Huntington business man, indicted for alleged false labeling of goods and alleged unlawful sale of goods, was today assigned to the docket for December 15. The assignments were brought in connection with the sale of mattresses to local dealers. Edwards will be defended by Attorney E. G. Miller.

Many Important Cases to be Tried
 The period just will return for service next Monday when a steady stream of jury work will start in common pleas court and extend up to the holiday season, during which time many important civil and criminal cases will come to trial.

Judge Robert L. Grimes, of Jackson will probably come to preside over the trials of the two cases assigned for Monday and Tuesday.

Hobbs Sent to Jail
 Sidney Hobbs, 1010 Gallia street, was found guilty in probate court today on a charge of neglect of his 2 children by failure to cause their attendance in school and judge committed him to the county jail for 10 days. The complaint was filed by Assistant Officer Elmer Fetter, who told the court that he had repeatedly warned Hobbs.

Ethel Clayton's Beautiful Complexion
 That splendid actress now appearing under the Portsmouth banner is famous for her beautiful complexion. She attributes her wonderful skin to the use of a simple toilet preparation called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. There is nothing else it for her freckles, chaps, nose, skin, dark rough skin, it takes the place of face powder, stays on better, and refreshes the skin and affect it, and it instantly beautifies the complexion. One application proves it. If you want a more youthful skin, with rosy cheeks, get a bottle of DR. WILLIAMS' Pink Pills. You will be delighted. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold at all grocers and drug counters. Miss Clayton says it instantly beautifies the complexion and makes a soft, white velvety skin everyone just loves to touch.

Unworthy American Soldier
 In 1912, on the 21st of August, Detroit was surrendered by Gen. William Hull to the British, under General Brock. After Hull was released by the British he was court-martialed by the Americans, found guilty of cowardice and condemned to be shot. President Madison modified the sentence to dishonorable discharge from the army and allowed Hull to go free.

Hard on Politicians
 And he gave it for his opinion that whoever could make two ears of corn or two blades of grain to grow upon a spot of ground where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more essential service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together. — Dean Swift's "Voyage to Brobdingnag."

THIS WOMAN'S CASE SIMILAR TO MANY OTHERS

Lacked Appetite, Had Poor Digestion and Couldn't Sleep Right

Weak and Run Down All Over as Result

Tells How Vola-Tonic Brought Back Normal Strength and Health

The statement of Mrs. Effie Millhouse, of Sedgewick, West Ironton, O., in which she tells of a weakened, run-down feeling she endured for years, will be of special interest to many local people because Mrs. Millhouse was troubled with the same symptoms that hundreds of men and women in this city are experiencing daily. Mrs. Millhouse has now regained her strength and gives the full credit for her improvement to Vola-Tonic. She said:

"I haven't felt right for years. My stomach was out of order. I had indigestion and bowel trouble. Nothing I ate agreed with me and was always formed on my stomach after meals causing a choking feeling and stuffiness. My appetite was poor, too, and I never cared for a thing to eat. My nerves also have been out of order for a long time. I haven't been able to sleep good for years and during an injunction suit brought in the county court to stop the distribution of certain school funds claimed by the plaintiff and which was dismissed by Judge Thomas."

"Vola-Tonic brought me such a good appetite that I eat of every meal now. I can eat anything I want, too, even say kind of meat without gas on my stomach or any kind of bad effects afterward. My nerves are in much better condition also. I sleep soundly every night and feel fine when I get up mornings."

Most weakened, run-down men and women lack an appetite, have poor digestion, are troubled with their nerves and have thin, watery blood. Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength," brings a normal, healthy appetite. It helps the digestive organs, takes strengthening nutrition from this new supply of food. Vola-Tonic builds up good, rich blood to carry this nutrition to every organ and tissue of the body and it soothes and strengthens the nerves, thus bringing sound, refreshing sleep every night. As a result, the body and mind are soon built up to full normal strength and health.

The Vola-Tonic experts meet many local people daily and explain Vola-Tonic and the results that may be expected from its use.

The assignments were brought in connection with the sale of mattresses to local dealers. Edwards will be defended by Attorney E. G. Miller.

Many Important Cases to be Tried
 The period just will return for service next Monday when a steady stream of jury work will start in common pleas court and extend up to the holiday season, during which time many important civil and criminal cases will come to trial.

Judge Robert L. Grimes, of Jackson will probably come to preside over the trials of the two cases assigned for Monday and Tuesday.

Hobbs Sent to Jail
 Sidney Hobbs, 1010 Gallia street, was found guilty in probate court today on a charge of neglect of his 2 children by failure to cause their attendance in school and judge committed him to the county jail for 10 days. The complaint was filed by Assistant Officer Elmer Fetter, who told the court that he had repeatedly warned Hobbs.

Ethel Clayton's Beautiful Complexion
 That splendid actress now appearing under the Portsmouth banner is famous for her beautiful complexion. She attributes her wonderful skin to the use of a simple toilet preparation called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. There is nothing else it for her freckles, chaps, nose, skin, dark rough skin, it takes the place of face powder, stays on better, and refreshes the skin and affect it, and it instantly beautifies the complexion. One application proves it. If you want a more youthful skin, with rosy cheeks, get a bottle of DR. WILLIAMS' Pink Pills. You will be delighted. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold at all grocers and drug counters. Miss Clayton says it instantly beautifies the complexion and makes a soft, white velvety skin everyone just loves to touch.

Unworthy American Soldier
 In 1912, on the 21st of August, Detroit was surrendered by Gen. William Hull to the British, under General Brock. After Hull was released by the British he was court-martialed by the Americans, found guilty of cowardice and condemned to be shot. President Madison modified the sentence to dishonorable discharge from the army and allowed Hull to go free.

Hard on Politicians
 And he gave it for his opinion that whoever could make two ears of corn or two blades of grain to grow upon a spot of ground where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more essential service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together. — Dean Swift's "Voyage to Brobdingnag."

Columbia Records

You have heard the brilliant performance of those Grand Opera Stars—Oscar Seagle, Barbara Maurel and Sascha Jacobsen and an opportunity to hear Charles Harrison, Amparito Farrar and the Stellar Columbia Quartette will be presented in March and April.

Have you compared their natural talents with those on the Columbia Records? You will find the reproduction as near perfect as possible.

We have a large stock of Columbia Records. Visit our store and have these stars' latest selections played for you. Just a few reminders of what we have for you in Columbia records.

HAWAIIAN—One of the most interesting chapters of modern musical history, has been the popularity of the exotic sweetness of Hawaiian music in this country.

FAMILIAR MELODIES—Very beautifully the sympathetic tone sweetness of Columbia records brings out the sentiment, the heart appeal, the touching simplicity and the tenderness of well known "Home" melodies.

A 49560—Good Bye—Rosa Ponselle.

A 6071—Loch Lomond, Drink to Me With Thine Eyes—Oscar Seagle.

POPULAR—Not only our popular music when it is popular but sung by the headliners of vaudeville and musical comedy.

A 2657—Tell it to the Marines, You Can't Beat Us—Henry Burr.

A 2661—Hindustan, In the Shadow of the Desert Palm—Sterling Trio.

DANCE—You cannot sit out a Columbia dance record. They seem to strike that entrancing rhythm that satisfy.

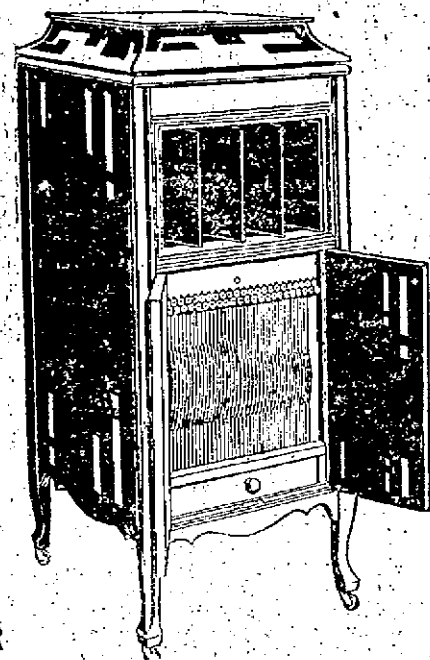

A 6019—Cecile Waltz; Millicent Waltz—Prince's Orchestra.

A 6096—Pickaninny's Paradise; My Baby Baby—Prince's Band.

A 2311—Lelia Pasillo; Hawaiian Dreams—Guitar Duet.

A 2673—Hawaiian Breezes; Hawaiian Waltz—Banjo, Guitar, Ukulele.

OPERATIC—The whole enchanted realm of grand opera, with all its wealth of musical inspiration is found on Columbia records.

A 49762—Aida Celestie Aida—Hip-olito Lazaro.

A 49571—Madam Butterfly—Rosa Ponselle.

PATRIOTIC—No country in the world can boast more glorious patriotic music than America.

A 5949—Star Spangled Banner; America—Louis Gravenre.

A 2357—The Battle Cry of Freedom; Tramp, Tramp, Tramp—Stellar Quartette.

ORCHESTRA—The supremacy of the Columbia in orchestral recording is recognized by the fact that the great orchestras of the country have chosen the Columbia to reproduce their art.

A 6076—Carmen; Trovatore—Metropolitan Orchestra.

A 5952—In a Monastery Garden; Sonata—Columbia Symphony Orchestra.

BAND—After all there are times when the craving for music is only satisfied by the stirring strains of a brass band.

A 6053—General Pershing March; Pasadena Day March—Prince's Band.

A 2486—Defend America; American Eagle—Prince's Band.

COMIC—In the world of fun and frolics, the Columbia reigns supreme.

A 2310—Levinsky at the Wedding.

A 2525—I'm In Love; How'd you Like to be My Daddy.

The Crystal Electric Washing Machine

The day of the wash-tub is passing—just as sure as the candle and oil lamps disappeared in the advent of gas and electricity—and the Crystal Electric Washing Machine has sounded the death knell.

No more back-breaking rubbing of delicate fabric upon metal—wearing, tearing and destroying. Instead a smooth, scientific wash—the kind that forces water and soap into the very organic cells of the fabric and then releases bringing even the smallest particle of dust or grime.

With the Crystal Electric Washer, there will be no more clothes ruined by the reactions of bleaching powders and the drag and pull of former methods. Washing is accomplished with but little effort, at a more economical cost and adds "mileage to the clothes you wear."

For the woman in the country, the Crystal Washing Machine does the same thing that the milking machines, the reaper and tractors accomplish for her husband.

For the woman of the city, this machine eliminates all bother of the laundress or the laundry—and puts her in a position to keep the best class of domestic servants obtainable.

ATTEMPT TO SLAY ADMIRAL KOLCHAK

LONDON, Nov. 19.—An attempt to assassinate Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government, which has until recently maintained its capital at Omsk, is reported in a wireless dispatch received here from Moscow. Hand grenades were thrown at him. Six soldiers were killed and 12 wounded.

The capture of Kurek, south of Orel, is reported in the dispatch. In capturing Tobolsk, Ishim, Zlatinsk, Belorajovsk, Koktubetov and Omsk, the dispatch asserts, the Bolsheviks took 2,000 prisoners, including a thousand officers.

Poet-Aviator Swells Forces

FIUMI, Monday, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Gabriele D'Annunzio's recent stroke in Dalmatia, executed in his descent upon Zara, has augmented his land and sea forces to such an extent that they now are estimated to number 50,000 men.

The Italian forces of occupation in Dalmatia comprise an army corps, with one division at Zara and another at Sebenico. All of these troops are registered under D'Annunzio's banners and are said to have ample supplies and all sorts of equipment, assuring them subsistence for several months.

CALOMEL ROBBED OF ITS NAUSEA

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Unpleasant and Sickening Qualities Removed. New Tablet Called "Calotabs."

The latest triumph of modern pharmacy is a far-sighted "Calotabs" tablet, known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines, has been purified and freed from the objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use. It is a powerful purgative and laxative, and in a great variety of cases, it is the only remedy that will give relief. Now it is the easiest to take, and the most pleasant to take. One tablet on the tongue at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no odor, no pain, no sickness. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver and a good appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your druggist offers to refund the price if you are not satisfied. Write for literature.

More Employees, Higher Wages On Railroads

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.—While it cost more to operate the railroads under government control, the government is not only using more employees, but is paying them higher wages and they are working shorter hours. Director General Hines informed the senate today in response to a resolution asking for that information.

In July there was an increase of 11.2 percent in employees over December, 1917, and the working hours showed a decrease of 10 percent. Total compensation to the roads by the government in July was $22,140,000, while in December it was $15,000,000. The average daily pay of employees in July was $4.12 against $3.52.

This increase, Mr. Hines estimated at 53 percent, although he thought corrected estimates would increase it to 66 percent.

NO CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE
STOEBENVILLE, O., Nov. 18.—No criminal negligence was found, was the statement made today by Coroner T. H. Kirk, following the holding of an inquest into the mine disaster at Amsterdam, Ohio, in which the lives of 20 miners were lost. Thirty-five men, mostly miners who were in the mine when the fire broke out, testified. The testimony showed that the fire started in the fan room.

The coroner stated that his finding will not be made public for a week or more, on account of the great amount of testimony on hand. State Mine Inspector Jerome Watson attended the inquest.

MINERS WALK OUT

PUNXSIE, PA., Nov. 18.—Six hundred union miners who went to work in the Florence mine here today, promptly walked out when they learned that Joseph Zubly, a miner, had been fired on from ambush while on his way to the pit.

POSSES ARE REDUCED

CENTRALIA, WASH., Nov. 18.—The cries of disorders that began here yesterday, when persons said to be I. W. W., fired on a parade of American Legion members and other former service men, killing four and wounding others, passed into its second phase today when steps toward speedy presentation of those under arrest were taken. Poses searching for men wanted in connection with the affair were reduced in size, all but two or three of the accused having been taken into custody.

NOT TO MOLEST JENKINS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The acting minister of foreign affairs at Mexico City has informed the American embassy that the state authorities at Puebla had been instructed not to molest William O. Jenkins, the American consular agent, who recently was arrested on charges of collusion in connection with his kidnapping by bandits. Jenkins was released after his arrest, but restricted to his home.

Jackson News

JACKSON, Nov. 18.—John E. Harper, who has been appointed Rural Commissioner of Ohio has sold his residence in Canton to Allen Howe, and moved his effects to Columbus yesterday. The removal was made in a transfer truck which is cutting in extensively on the business of the freight train.

The same truck that took Harper's effects to Columbus brought those of Rev. Lewis from Columbus to Canton. Rev. Lewis has been assigned to the charge of the Methodist Episcopal church at Canton for the ensuing year. He is a son of John L. Lewis of Oak Hill and a brother of Mrs. Arch Campbell of Jackson.

Mrs. Robert U. Wilson and Mrs. Frank Delany are in attendance at the Conference of Churches and Correction in Cincinnati.

Seven Wives Want Grievances Redressed

Six men with their sweethearts have visited the Jackson court house since Nov. 10, to apply for licenses to marry, but in the same time seven wives have applied for alimony or divorce. The list is as follows:

Mary E. Steel vs. William F. Steel, alimony, one child.
Stella Smith vs. Bruce Smith, divorce, two children.
Nellie G. Sedgwick vs. Albert W. Sedgwick, divorce, one child.
Mary C. Miller vs. James F. Miller, divorce, four children.
Ira Belle Cain vs. Emerson P. Cain, divorce, three children.
Goldie Hush vs. William A. Hush, divorce, no children.
Catherine Copen vs. James F. Copen, divorce, no children.
One divorce charged with Peter E. W. W.

Fabric Air Ducts

Fabric air ducts have been invented for use in underground construction, having the advantage that they can be easily removed if blasting is to be done and as easily replaced.

This list is the latest of any given in the history of the county. The ground for divorce is that the defendant husband openly avowed himself to be an I. W. W. (Industrial Worker of the World) and meting in their home, constantly making threats.

Up On Your Toes

What a thing it is to be fit! To be not merely free from actual sickness, but to be well, absolutely well—and to have the mental vim, stamina, vigor, which go with physical well-being.

But you can't be fit if constipation is constantly breeding poisons, which are taken into the blood and undermine the whole system.

The modern treatment for constipation is Nujol.

The action of Nujol is entirely different from that of castor oil, pills, salts, etc. Nujol is pleasant to take and does not force and weaken the system, nor impair digestion.

Nujol prevents constipation because it softens the food waste and encourages the intestinal muscles to act naturally. It thus removes the cause of constipation and self-poisoning.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

For reliable health builder—"Thirty Feet of Danger"—free, address Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York.

Warning: Nujol is sold only in red & white boxes bearing the Nujol Trade Mark as shown here. Beware of pretenses & be sure to get the same as Nujol. You may suffer from sub-stitutes.

SITE FOR NEW ROD MILL BEING FILLED

The Whitaker-Glessner Company is making a seven foot fill on its property west of West avenue, in New Boston.

Granulated cinder from the blast furnace is being dumped on the property and the work is moving along satisfactorily. Big trucks haul the cinder and a day and night force are at work. The cinder packs hard and the property will make an admirable site for the company's new rod mill, which eventually will be built. When completed officials of the company claim the mill will be one of the most complete of its kind in the country.

FIRE ON STEEL STRIPPERS
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 19.—Depot fire broke out on steel strippers early today during attacks upon negro workmen leaving an East Youngstown plant, and one striker was shot in the leg. One negro is in the hospital from injuries received and another was less seriously hurt. The house of a workman in East Youngstown was destroyed last night by fire of mysterious origin. The Bessemer plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, the last of the Youngstown group, resumed operation today, the company announced.

RECREATIONAL CLUB TO BE FORMED

With consideration for the future of the Blue Triangle in Portsmouth and interest in advancing its various phases of activities for girls in the city, some thirty-four or more girls, representing every business of the city, gathered together at the Blue Triangle rooms Monday evening and formed the nucleus of an industrial girls' recreational club.

Miss Carol Simmons, recreational director, told the plan of organizing into a club before the girls and met with unanimous response.

From the discussion, the girls were in favor of the organization as a means of stimulating and keeping up the interest in the Blue Triangle and would give the girls a chance to say what they really wanted. It was stressed that democracy would be the keynote of the club, that there would be no change in the "open-door" policy, but that each girl would feel herself a business and would exercise that responsibility in seeing that every girl who entered the room would feel hospitably welcomed. A delicious supper was served to the girls. All girls in the city are asked to meet at the Blue Triangle room Monday evening of next week at 7:30 to talk over the plans.

Charity Ball Parade Tonight

All Elks Urged To Take Part

Final arrangements have been completed for the automobile parade members of the Elks' Club will stage tonight to boost their annual Charity Ball on Friday night, December 6.

Clintman Oscar Monrad, who has worked hard to make the parade a success, started last night that he expected to have 100 machines in the motor cavalcade.

"I would like to have every Elk owning an automobile at the club not later than 7 o'clock tonight. It is their duty to be there. The Charity Ball gives promise of being one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever held in this city, and it will be if we all do our part," Mr. Monrad said last night.

Already three bulls and three orchestras have been engaged and possibly the fourth and even the fifth will be needed to care for the dancers. Every penny of the net proceeds will go towards giving the poor kiddies of the city a happy and joyous Christmas. Families in need of well-filled baskets will get them, the distribution to be made by a committee named by the Elks' Lodge.

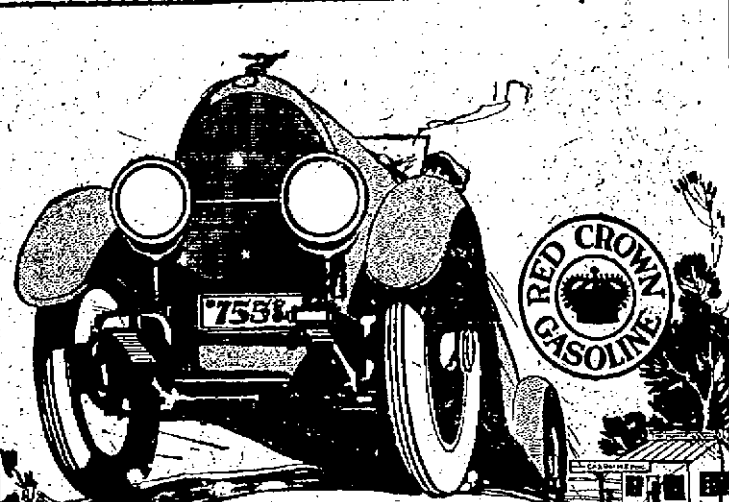

A volunteer band has been engaged to furnish music for tonight's parade and it will move sharply at 7:30 from the Elks' Club.

Three Men and three heels

THIS man pounds along with old-fashioned, hard, leather heels. He takes 8000 steps a day on unyielding pavements and office floors. Every step is like a hammer-blow. With hard leather heels, he is giving his nervous system 8000 daily jolts and jars.

Walking is a constant drain on his energy. He is exposing himself needlessly to over-fatigue and nervous exhaustion.

Hard rubber heels—little better than leather

THIS man wears ordinary rubber heels. He does not realize that rubber varies widely—that it may be soft and crumbly as in an eraser—or hard and brittle as in a pipe stem.

His ordinary hard rubber heels are much like leather heels. They transmit the shocks of walking instead of absorbing them.

For heels, rubber must be neither too hard nor too soft. It must be both unusually tough and unusually springy.

Heels that are both springy and tough

THIS man has found a heel that has unusual spring and that is at the same time tough and long-wearing. He is using O'Sullivan's Heels.

To secure the resiliency and durability of O'Sullivan's Heels, the highest grades of rubber are "compounded" with the best toughening agents known. The compound is then "cured" or baked under high pressure. By this special process the greatest resiliency is combined with the utmost durability.

Guaranteed to outlast any other heels

O'Sullivan's Heels are guaranteed to wear twice as long as ordinary rubber heels; and will outlast three pairs of leather heels. Go to your shoe-repairer today and have O'Sullivan's Heels put on your shoes.

Violin Artist Gives One Of Most Pleasing Entertainments Ever Heard In City

SASCHA JACOBSEN DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

The second number of "The All Star Popular Concert" series with Sascha Jacobsen, the noted American violinist, as soloist was given at the High School auditorium last night. That this excellent series is growing in favor and appreciation is evidenced by the fact that a somewhat larger audience was out to hear this justly famous musician. It was also a quiet and more attentive audience than the one that listened to the Sergio-Mancini concert a few weeks ago. Perhaps the timely editorial in "The Portsmouth Daily Times" did the work because there was no perceptible rattling of programs and banging of doors and a smaller amount of whispering was heard during the program. May we hope that by the end of this excellent series our audiences will be trained to receive an artist in a courteous manner.

Mr. Jacobsen opened his program with the well known Mendelssohn concerto in E minor. At the end of the first movement he had established himself as a master of his instrument. There was no let-down throughout the entire program. The audience movement which followed showed his ability to emphasize the singing quality of the violin and at the same time he did not allow his execution to degenerate into the maudlin sentimental type of playing. One of his greatest assets is the feeling he conveyed to his audience of animation and fire coupled with a restraint in feeling. "Finestre" is the word which most fully describes his playing. The criticism of "The New York Press" that his tone is remarkably sweet, mellow and expressive yet at the same time astonishingly full, round and forceful is one that we enthusiastically second after hearing his playing last night.

The "Zephyr" by Hubay was as exquisite a tone painting as one would care to hear. The staccato work in this number was especially clear and distinctive. At the end of the second group his encore Glazov's popular "Dear Old Pal of Mine" was enthusiastically received by the audience. In the Spanish numbers Mr. Jacobsen handled his instrument as a genuine-Sarasate's "Zapatero" giving a real flavor of Madrid and Granada. At the close of this group the audience received his encore Beethoven's Minuet in G with the enthusiasm that a familiar classic never fails to evoke.

One would describe the playing of Mr. Jacobsen as sincere and a better word can not be found to express this artist's work.

Mr. Emanuel Balaban as accompanist was a great factor in making this concert an artistic success. His shies being an unusually good pianist the audience at all times felt that there was an accompanist who true to his art suppressed his own part when necessary to give way to the right artist and sustained the violinist when the piano part was at all prominent. Too often an audience does not really appreciate the delivery of the art of accompaning. Mr. Balaban is a real accompanist in the highest sense of the word.

Mr. Balaban, who was born in Odessa is a cousin of Mr. Samuel Horshaw. He and Mr. Jacobsen were entertained at tea at the Horshaw home on Fourth street following last night's concert.

HARVARD AND PRINCETON MAY PLAY OFF TIE

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 18.—Suggestions that the Princeton and Harvard football teams play off their tie game of November 8 in a contest to be held November 20 have found favor with the Harvard athletic management and with the Crimson players.

Fred W. Moore, graduate manager of athletics, expressed himself as in favor of the play-off, but added that official sanction would have to come from the faculty.

A Harvard victory over Yale next Saturday would make the Crimson keen to replay the only game of the season, which it failed to win, while a Yale success would leave little to be determined by the game in view of Princeton's defeat of Yale.

WILL CARE FOR HER OWN

SOME citizens of New Boston are objecting to inclusion in the larger Portsmouth on the plea that the new village portion will not be treated fairly by the older city parts, while others are asking assurance that it will have equal treatment. The first are wrong while the others need have no uneasiness whatsoever. Boundary lines will be eliminated when the Peerless stretches from the big to the Little Scioto. The city will be improved and equipped as the need for them arises and is most important and urgent at the time, and not because they are desired in a particular section.

As confederacy of this we may point out, not as the person of careless thought and speech would put it, handsomely and liberally but in simple justice, how the most recently annexed territory is being treated. Part of the Scioto Trail and all of Cole's boulevard and Micklethwait addition are the outskirts of this new territory. They are being supplied with water, gas, and electric service and will have paved streets just as soon as conditions justify and legislation can be had.

Portsmouth will do equally well with the territory over which she wishes to expand. That such can be counted upon to a certainty, because as this is being written two hundred and more of Portsmouth's best and most progressive citizens are giving earnestly and energetically of their time to the organization of a chamber of commerce, the sole purpose of which is a bigger, better and brighter Portsmouth. The acquisition of a few more acres of territory will not advantage her. She must have homes and people on the lots there. She can not be better unless she makes advancement along civic lines. She can not be brighter if she does not treat every citizen and every section in justice and equity.

Bear in mind that the chamber of commerce is going to have a new spirit and a new mind in it and above all a new and mighty power of accomplishment. If it stands not for a growing Portsmouth, for the promotion of the comfort and contentment of every citizen, for equal privileges and advantages to all, then it will fail miserably in its mission, but it is not going to fail.

And just remember this people of New Boston and of Sciotoville and the contiguous territory as well: There is a law on the statute books which directs that in the matter of such utilities as water, gas, electricity, all parts of the city shall be served alike. And it isn't necessary to "go to law" to have that law enforced. A simple and inexpensive presentation of the situation to the state authorities will bring relief.

So come in and welcome as citizens, neighbors and brothers, all under one roof and all enjoying the strength and advantages that a right union brings.

May be she's just about right, but from this short distance it looks as though Huntington is getting too all-fired good. We have heard of such things and banning the sale of gasoline on Sunday looks like it. Posing as something of a theologian we can't see where it is any worse to sell gasoline on a Sunday than to burn it. Fact is financially the latter is just fifty times worse, considering you pay 25 1/2 cents a gallon and the dealer makes a half cent profit.

Certainly the opposition finds fault with the administration for taking over the railroads and its management thereof, but if one be such a blunder and the other so great a failure, why all this dodging and ducking to hold off the immediate return of the roads to their company management, as the administration proposes?

It is an inspiring sight to see two hundred men, whose affairs are at least of average importance, laying them aside and going out to work for all the others of the community. It puzzles more why there are some who will not even give the little asked of them and when they are altogether able.

Only a little better than a month, a week and a day, since Cincinnati won the world's championship and yet it is quite as a thing forgot and that was not.

If Princeton hadn't won over Yale some papers would have been laying its defeat up to Wilson because he was former president of that university.

Secretary Wilson told both sides what was what, but so far it doesn't appear to have gotten either anywhere except right where it was.

Lightless nights, sugarless and fuelless days—well that is enough to make us serious for a while.

It is an old story, but again, 'tis said shoes are to be scarce and higher.

THE MARRIED MAN AND THE AVERAGE MAN

I am rejoicing in my work! It is not get through the day. But by the time I am almost ready to admit, the one time I have plunged into work, gotten perfectly satisfactory thing in my mind, taken it with Athens or at one interesting letter today from the of the great glittering hotels on Broad "Messenger" of whose "Correspondent" way and come back to my cheery little office corner. I am the able conductor, home, perhaps, to find him already in solving other people's problems.

Helping from the walls sent to by subscribers to the "Messenger," there is about one happy marriage to fifty "get-along-somewhat."

I notice, too, from these letters that it usually takes the test of smashing big troubles to prove a man and woman are truly mated.

As I look over my diary it seems full of bickerings. Yet things are not always bad between us by any means.

There are fairly long periods when all is right between us. Jim's affairs run comfortably. I have my work, my household duties, which I really enjoy my friendly outings with Athens, and always, always the glory of this great seething life about me, with its thrills and interests. It is brimming life and energy. Its novelty, its constant change and color.

I often wonder if the little spells of happiness are not what make married life so wearing sometimes! If things always went badly, if husbands and wives were always quarrelsome and un sympathetic, it would be easier to fight matters. One is atrociously treated and one runs away. But one cannot go away when one knows the trouble is only temporary. One battles through it somehow and emerges on the other side, and calls—until the next storm comes.

It often happens that in the morning I am so unhappy it seems as if I can't

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAYS NEWS

OSCAR W. UNDERWOOD

Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama probably will become a Democratic leader in the senate to succeed the late Senator Thomas S. Martin of Virginia in the opinion of many of the Democratic members of the senate.

Because of the fact that no other business it has a that of the treaty of peace is to come before the senate at this session, it is possible that the Democratic caucus to elect a new majority leader may be postponed until the beginning of the next session, but in any event it would be a surprise to the senate should any other man than Underwood be chosen for the place.

When Underwood came to the senate in 1915, preceded by a reputation as a tariff and "financial expert" because of his work on the Underwood-Simmons law, the first Democratic tariff bill in years, he was virtually put in Coventry by the veteran senators of the Democratic party, who desired to show him his place and who were fearful that this new, young senator might displace them as leaders in legislative work.

But despite this apparent snub, which relegated Underwood to the obscurity of all younger members, he steadily fought his way upward, and finally, after a great deal of hard work, gained recognition on the Democratic side as one of the best debaters in his party, one of the soundest thinkers and one of the most indefatigable workers.

The attention of Senator Martin was attracted to him because of his work on the appropriations committee, and when Martin began to show the strain of too much work, during the strenuous days of the war session, Martin began to demand more and more on Underwood for support and aid. In the closing days of the last session Underwood did victoriously all the work of his party leader of the senate, although Martin remained nominally in charge.

Senator Underwood is a native of Kentucky, having been born at Louisville in 1862. He was admitted to the bar in 1884, and has since practiced law at Birmingham. Before coming to the senate in 1915 he represented his district in the lower house for twenty years. He was a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1912.

"You can mind your business."

"You fresh thing!"

And that ended the whole thing.

COUNCIL SLASHES SALARY OF MAYOR

At the New Boston Council meeting last night the time was spent in fixing salaries of Village officials and employees for the next two years. There was a big cut in the salary of Mayor Lawrence Fitch in going from $400 a year to the salary Mayor J. S. Davis will receive only $250 per year. When he was Mayor three years ago he received a salary of $400 per year.

The salary of street commissioner was cut from $300 to $200 per year. Eight hundred dollars was the amount appropriated to pay an engineer for two years. The engineer received a salary of $125 per month. The salary of deputy marshals was raised from $1200 to $1320 the same as received by the marshal. Is a question whether to cut the marshal or raise the deputies and it was decided to increase the deputies.

Loyal Men's Bible Class Entertained Soldier Boys

One of the best class meetings in the history of the Loyal Men, was the First Christian Bible School, was the one of last evening, which was attended by eighty members and which was the nature of a reception to the returned soldier boys, who are represented on the service flag that hang in the main auditorium of the church.

It remained for Dr. W. B. Riley of Minneapolis, Minn., to obtain the honor of being the first preacher to compel the rising of the noblest partition leading from the main auditorium of the spacious Franklin Ave. M. E. church to the Sabbath School rooms. The crowd last evening flowed out and over the main room and balconies. Remember that it was just the old gospel preached by a spirit-filled man of God who did the work. There were no advertised frills to the service. The attraction was the Word of God on the lips of the prophet. And never before was such a convincing sermon heard here, we sincerely believe. Dr. Riley is a profound student of the Bible, believes in its truth, and holds the conviction that it offers the one provision for human bliss in Jesus Christ.

Bowling

Thanks to the spectacular work of William N. Zottmann, the Lemons of the Masonic League, managed to win one of their three games with the Diamonds at the Pennant alleys, last night. Mr. Zottmann came through with a double century score in his sandwich game and gave the Lemons an 800 score, the first they have made this season. However this little setback did not phase the Diamonds for they won the next game rather handily and thus grabbed out two out of three for their portion of the spoils. Had Captain Lemons not been compelled to leave the game at the beginning of the last game it is quite possible the result would have been reversed, for he went nicely in his middle game and seemed to have the range down fine. Donald Ives of the Diamonds, was the second best ball of the evening, getting a total of 472 and showed that he was going to make his team a most valuable member. Edward Ricker, of the Lemons was third best marksmen, finishing with 450 or one more than the president of the organization. Clarence E. Nodler, Archer-Man Johnson started out nicely and kept up his speed until the last game when he hit the bumpers and found the rest of the journey very rugged indeed. The scores:

SPORT SALAD
COLUMBUS, Nov. 19.—About the only inkling that Joe Tinker has given about his prospective manager for the Senators next season is that the former captain of the Cubs is a former Columbus pilot.
This would narrow the field of prospects down to a comparatively small list, including Bill Cramer, Bill Hinnebaugh, Bill Friel, Rudy Holselt and Mordred Brown.
Without detracting in the least from the ability of the others it is a safe guess that the question to be left to a vote of fans, Cramer would be the selection.

PEKNY ANTE

To Decide Championship

Sunday afternoon the football championship of Southern Ohio will be settled on the Millbrook gridiron, when the N. & W. eleven and Wellston crack warriors battle.

It will be the fastest game of the season, as both teams have been going great this season and are evenly matched. The locals have not had their goal crossed here this season and son. They form a fighting pair of warriors who will be ally assisted by Jones, a former Ohio University man, and Gallagher a former Marietta man.

The N. & W. team will practice tomorrow night at 6:45 and every player should be on hand.

Boxing And Wrestling

The mixed card offered for tonight at the Victory Cafeteria, Hall should draw a good crowd. Three falls were necessary to decide the contest, the first going to Varga in 42 minutes and 10 seconds on a headlock and body scissors. Fox rallied in the next period, taking the second

SPORT SALAD

COLUMBUS, Nov. 19.—About the only inkling that Joe Tinker has given about his prospective manager for the Senators next season is that the former captain of the Cubs is a former Columbus pilot. This would narrow the field of prospects down to a comparatively small list, including Bill Cramer, Bill Hinnebaugh, Bill Friel, Rudy Holselt and Mordred Brown. Without detracting in the least from the ability of the others it is a safe guess that the question to be left to a vote of fans, Cramer would be the selection.

HOUSE ADJOURNS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Six months to the day after the congress convened in special session, the house formally adjourned at 4:42 p. m. 64 day after receiving word from President Wilson that he did not object to this action. The adjournment resolution was adopted by a vote of 55 to 3.

With an unstropped blade
Seen under a powerful magnifying glass, an unstropped razor blade, after use, looks like a saw edge

With a stropped blade
Stropping keeps the tiny teeth of the blade in perfect alignment, and provides a smooth keen edge for every shave

Can you average 42 good shaves from each razor blade?

—500 shaves from every dozen blades?

HOW many satisfying shaves do you get from one razor blade before it begins to pull and scrape?

On the first day, when the blade is fresh, your shave is smooth and cool. But very soon your beard begins to dull the edge. Soon the pulling and scraping become unbearable. You throw the old blade away—slip a new blade in your razor—and begin the same round again.

The real reason that blades grow dull

Under a microscope, a razor edge is seen to consist of hundreds of tiny teeth. When these teeth are in alignment, the blade is sharp. But the very first shave with a new blade bends these teeth out of alignment, and the blade begins to lose its edge.

With most safety razors, there is no way to smooth the delicate teeth back into alignment. The original smooth, fine edge of the blade grows rougher with every shave.

Today there is one safety razor that gives you a fresh, keen edge for every shave. With the AutoStrop Razor you will get 500 cool, clean shaves from every dozen blades—an average of 42 satisfying shaves from each blade.

Like having a new blade for every shave

Built right into the frame of the AutoStrop Razor is a remarkably simple self-stropping device which keeps the blade keen-edged as when new—day after day. It smooths the tiny teeth of the blade into perfect alignment, and gives you a freshly-sharpened blade in a few seconds—without taking the razor apart or removing the blade.

All the comfort of a fresh blade every day—that's what the AutoStrop Razor means for you! It ends all the many shaving troubles due to dulled or dulling blades—"pull," aftersmart, tender spots on the face. Morning after morning it gives you a smooth, comfortable shave with a keen, freshly-stropped edge.

The AutoStrop Razor is the only safety razor that sharpens itself, shaves, and cleans without removing a single part. A touch of the thumb adjusts the blade for close, medium, or light shaving.

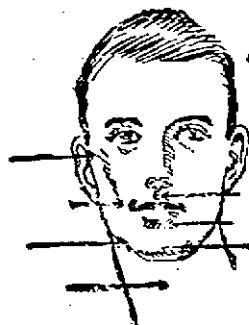

A few passes of the AutoStrop Razor over its specially treated strop put the original keen, fresh edge back on the blade day after day

Don't put up any longer with the scrape and smart of fast dulling blades. Begin tomorrow to get the comfort of a fresh, keen edge for every shave. Ask your dealer today about the AutoStrop Razor free trial plan.

TREATY CLOSED TO FURTHER RESERVATIONS Cincinnati Legion Members Raid The Socialist Headquarters

CLIMAX IN TREATY FIGHT TODAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—A letter from President Wilson advising administration senators to vote against ratification of the treaty with the foreign relations committee reservations, was laid before a conference of the administration senate forces today by Democratic Leader Hitchcock.

The committee program, the president wrote, would provide not for ratification, but rather for the nullification of the treaty.

The conference had been called to decide upon the final administration tactics in the fight for ratification, which is expected to end today or tomorrow. After the president's letter was read, there were indications that unless a compromise could be effected, the administration senators would line up almost solidly against ratification.

The president's letter, addressed to Senator Hitchcock and dated yesterday, follows:

"My Dear Senator:

"You were good enough to bring me word that the Democratic senators supporting the treaty expected to hold a conference before the final vote on the League resolution of ratification and that they would be glad to receive a word of counsel from me.

"I should hesitate to offer it in detail but I assume that the senators only desire my judgment upon the important question of the final vote on the resolution containing the many reservations of Senator Lodge. On that I cannot hesitate. For in my opinion, the resolution in that form does not provide for ratification, but rather for the nullification of the treaty. I sincerely hope that the friends and supporters of the League resolution of ratification will take this into consideration.

"I understand that the door will probably then be open for a genuine resolution of ratification.

"I trust that all true friends of the treaty will refuse to support the League resolution.

"Cordially and sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON"

The president's reference to an opportunity to vote on a "genuine" ratification resolution referred to the plans of the Democrats to get action on an amended resolution after they had voted down the League proposal. That amendment has been blocked, however, by the decision of the mild reservation Democrats to stand with Republican Leader Lodge against providing such an opportunity.

The Democratic leaders, however, say they have been promised a chance to vote on an unreserved resolution before the committee resolution comes to a vote and should the latter fail, they expect the mild group to bring the committee draft back before the senate on a motion to reconsider. In the eventuality their plan is to present amendments which will make the resolution acceptable.

It is known to be the purpose of Senator Lodge, on the other hand, to force the administration leaders to make their compromise proposals before the committee resolution is voted in. Today's conference took up that situation with the leaders hopeful that they might obtain such modification of the resolution as would enable them to vote for it.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.—The treaty reaches its climax today when the ratification resolution is called up in the senate at noon. The pact was closed to all further reservations last night and the senators have been whipped into line for the final count.

Democratic senators were called to conference today by Senator Hitchcock, party leader, to put the finishing touches on their counter proposals and map out their program for the battle royal which will be waged when the ratification resolution comes up for action.

Hope of securing a clear cut adoption of the treaty as it was presented by President Wilson has been abandoned practically, and the administration forces are centering their efforts on a compromise which would be acceptable to both sides of the senate.

Publication of President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock, in which it was believed the chief executive had outlined his policy on the situation, was awaited with keen interest. The letter, when presented to the conference of Democratic senators, was expected to influence the future course of the treaty proponents.

The counter proposals of the Democrats were understood to be aimed particularly at the preamble, to the foreign relations committee reservations which President Wilson has opposed vigorously. The compromise plan also was said to provide that the other allied powers could accept the reservations by mere "acquiescence" rather than by a specific exchange of notes.

POSSIBLE ARE REDUCED.—CENTRALIA, WASH., Nov. 18.—The series of disorders that began here yesterday, when persons said to be I. A. W. fired on a parade of American Legion members and other former service men, killing four and wounding others, passed into its second phase today when steps toward speedy prosecution of those under arrest were taken. Posses searching for men wanted in connection with the affair were reduced in size, all but two or three of the accused having been taken into custody.

Ref's Claims Confirmed.—WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Bolshevik claims of the capture of Omsk on November 15 were confirmed by official dispatches received today at the state department. These, said the soviet forces, had advanced 12 versts beyond the Kolchak capital and had destroyed bridges and railroad tracks.

RADICALS CAUGHT.—HARTFORD—26 alleged radicals, including women, taken in raid here.

Dining Room Bandit

ELYRIA, O., Nov. 18.—A lone bandit, shortly before daylight today, cowed guests and employees in the dining-room of Hotel Toplit, and after rifling the cash register of $90, escaped. The bandit entered the dining-room, ordered and disposed of a breakfast and called for his check. As the waiter approached, the diner drew a revolver, commanded the waiter to throw up his hands and he backed the guests and employees into a corner, holding them there while he took $90 from the cash register and then escaped in an automobile.

RADICALS KEPT MEN FROM MINES

CHEYENNE, WYO., Nov. 18.—State officials were ready today to send state and federal troops, if necessary, to Rock Springs, where foreign born radicals yesterday are reported to have prevented American miners from working in the coal mines. Full protection to miners who wish to work was promised by Governor Carey, and reports from the mining districts were eagerly awaited because of determination of 2300 miners, expressed at a Rock Springs mass meeting, to return to work today.

Operators said the American miners all desired to return to work, but that the foreign element objected. Radicals armed with rifles kept the men from the mines yesterday, and none of the properties was operated. Several alleged radicals were placed under arrest.

TROOPS DESERT TO BOLSHEVIKI

HELSINGFORS, FINLAND, Monday, Nov. 17.—(Via London, Nov. 18.)—(By the Associated Press)—It is reported here tonight that 20,000 troops of General Yudenich's northwestern Russian army have gone over to the Bolsheviks.

NOT TO MOLEST JENKINS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The acting minister of foreign affairs at Mexico City has informed the American embassy that the state authorities at Puebla had been instructed not to molest William O. Jenkins, the American consular agent, who recently was arrested on charges of collusion in connection with his kidnapping by bandits. Jenkins was released after his arrest, but restricted to his home.

TO BRING 'EM CHEER

NEW YORK—More than 35 tons of Christmas gifts are being loaded on steamer Omsk, Christmas ship for the Y. M. C. A. for American troops in Siberia.

COAL SHORTAGE MENACE GROWS

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The growing shortage of coal for non-essential industries, Mr. Hines indicated he would issue a statement after the meeting regarding steps to be taken to conserve the coal supply now available.

EXPECT WARNING FROM GARFIELD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Warning to the miners and operators that the government will not tolerate the continued suspension of mining activity in the bituminous fields was expected today from Fuel Administrator Garfield at the joint conference of the scale committee. The conference called for yesterday, was postponed until today.

ATTEMPT TO SLAY ADMIRAL KOLCHAK

LONDON, Nov. 18.—An attempt to assassinate Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government, which up until recently maintained its capital at Omsk, is reported in a wireless dispatch received here from Moscow. Hand grenades were thrown at him. Six soldiers were killed and 12 wounded.

More Employees, Higher Wages On Railroads

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.—While it cost more to operate the railroads under government control, the government is not only using more employees, but is paying them higher wages and they are working shorter hours, Director General Hines informed the senate today in response to a resolution asking for that information.

In July, there was an increase of 11.2 percent in employees over December, 1917, and the working hours showed a decrease of 3.9 percent. Total compensation to the roads by the government in July was $226,140,535, while in December it was $153,030,068. The average daily pay of employees in July was $4.93 against $3.52.

This increase, Mr. Hines estimated at 53 percent, although he thought corrected estimates would increase it to 66 percent.

Seven Posses And Troops Hunt Bandit

CHEYENNE, WYO., Nov. 18.—Seven armed posses and a troop of cavalry from Fort D. A. Russell today searched the hills and brush land in a wide area around Medicine Bow for William Carlisle, notorious bandit, who last night outwitted the pursuers, robbed passengers on a Union Pacific train of $25 and escaped into the darkness wounded by a shower of bullets.

U. S. DELEGATION TO SAIL FIRST OF DECEMBER

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The American delegation to the peace conference will sail for home December 5 or 6, it was learned today. The British delegation will probably leave Paris about the same time, although no official announcement has been made.

Setting Up Prohibition Machinery

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Plans of the government to build up its prohibition enforcement machinery was well under way. An announcement today by John F. Kramer, prohibition commissioner, said examinations for field revenue inspection service of the enforcement staff soon will be held. Appointments will be made through the civil service.

STEEL OPERATIONS IN FULL SWING

STEUENSVILLE, O., Nov. 18.—Steel mills and finishing departments of the Inland Iron Works resumed operations this morning after being closed two months. The mill is now working 70 percent. The Steuenville plant of the Weirton Steel Company is operating almost in full. The Carnegie Steel Company at Mingo is again operating and with the plants at Follansbee and Weirton, West Virginia, under full operation, steel operations in the local district are again in full swing.

MINERS WALK OUT

PUNNETT, ARIZONA, Nov. 18.—Six hundred union miners who went to work in the Florence mine here today, promptly walked out when they learned that Joseph Zebry, a miner, had been fired on from ambush while on his way to the pit.

Literature Thrown Into Streets And Burned By Raiders

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 18.—Members of the American Legion numbering more than 300, led by their officers, descended upon Socialist headquarters in this city late last night and threw hundreds of pounds of radical literature into the streets. A bonfire was started and the literature burned. No one was in the building when the raid was made.

Carrying out their plans with secrecy, following a meeting at the club rooms of the "soldiers" organization earlier in the evening, word was passed that all members should assemble in the vicinity of the Socialist headquarters at 1:30 o'clock. At the appointed time men came from surrounding doors and hallways and proceeded to invade the building.

Most of the literature burned had been printed for the communist labor party of America. Other pamphlets were issued by the Socialist Philharmonic Society, Brooklyn, and by Liberator's headquarters, Cleveland. One was a purported reproduction of a letter to the "American working men from the Soviet socialist republic of Russia," written by Nikolai Lenin.

Another pamphlet was headed, "An open letter to President Wilson" and was written by Joseph W. Shatts, Dayton, Ohio, counsel for Eugene V. Debs, in his trial at Cleveland.

A large American flag found in the assembly was taken by the invading former service men. Police officials said they had taken no names nor had they recognized any of the raiders.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Liquidation of high-priced specialties was promptly resumed at the opening of today's stock market. Further losses of 2 to 10 points were sustained by the larger, which led last week's sweeping reactions. General Motors declined 7 points at the outset, this soon being extended to ten points. Crucible Steel, which contributed mainly to yesterday's setback, broke 5 points. Other issues of these divisions, also oil, motor specialties, shipings, leather and miscellaneous specialties were 2 to 3 points lower. In a few issues, notably General Motors and Mexican Petroleum, full recoveries were made within the first half hour. In other quarters moderate rallies were in progress.

Unprecedented Demand For Illinois--State Pasteboards

Many Stand In Line To Buy Admission Tickets

COLUMBUS, Nov. 19.—With more than a 12-hour wait before them, Columbus football fans who were unable to obtain seats for the Ohio State-Illinois game, began forming lines at 8 o'clock last night before the stadium, to buy tickets for the game. The unprecedented demonstration for seats places Columbus in the class of world series cities. Stories have been told of good old Columbus towns of lines forming the evening before in order to obtain seats when windows opened in the morning, but last night was the first time that the capital city has ever witnessed such a scene for an athletic event.

Many in the "all-night" lines carried camp chairs and practically each was provided with a bundle of sandwiches. One man in line had brought along a thermos bottle filled with coffee.

Hundreds of applicants for seats were turned away from the Athletic House at Ohio State yesterday. Mail orders by the dozens were received, but could not be filled.

Mayor Davis of Cleveland was among those necessarily turned down. It is the opinion of Director St. John that between 35,000 and 40,000 seats could have been sold if there had been means of accommodating the number.

Bill Clymer May Manage Columbus Team

COLUMBUS, Nov. 19.—About the only looking that Joe Tinker has given about his prospective manager for the Senators next season is that the man for whom he is angling is a former Columbus pilot.

This would narrow the field of prospects down to a comparatively small list, including Bill Clymer, Bill Hinchman, Bill Friel, Rudy Huklitt and Mordecai Brown.

Without detracting in the least from the ability of the others in a safe guess that were the question to be left to a voter of fans, Clymer would be the selection.

Bull Fight Is Held

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—El Torero, Mexico City's famous bull ring, was the scene this afternoon of the first bull fight since the sport was forbidden in the federal district by President Carranza almost three years ago. 17,000 persons attended, and no bulls were killed, but in other respects the sport was the same as in former years. There is a growing agitation for return of the fight and the festival today was arranged in honor of Uruguayan, Cuban and Argentine sailors from battleships which accompanied the body Amador Nervo, late minister to Argentina, to Mexico.

Ring Wizards To Clash

Jackie McFarland will train Mike Gibbons of St. Paul for his 10-round bout at St. Paul, Nov. 21, with Mike O'Dowd, according to Eddie Kane, manager of Gibbons. McFarland wrote to Gibbons, offering to assist him while preparing for the battle with O'Dowd. Before McFarland retired from the ring he was considered as one of the cleverest writers-fighters in the world.

Tournament Closes Today

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 19.—The three-cushion billiard championship tournament of America comes to a close today. The title will go either to R. L. Cannell, of New York, or Charles McCourt, of Cleveland, as Pierre Maupome, of Milwaukee, and Otto Kelsell, of Chicago, were eliminated yesterday.

The championship depends upon the results of today's three games. McCourt plays Clarence Jackson, of Detroit, this afternoon. McCourt also tackles Maupome tonight.

Should the two contenders win their matches, they will be tied. In that event they will play it off immediately after the McCourt-Maupome game.

Besides the title, which is for one year, the winner also gets a $1,000 prize and $2,400 annuity coupled with a handsome salary for an 18 week tour. The second prize is $1,250, third $1,000 and fourth $700.

Dempsey Will Fight If-

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Nov. 19.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, will meet the winner of the Carpentier-Beckett match at New Orleans March 17, if New Orleans promoters succeed in arranging the European bout.

Dempsey, who was here today, announced he signed a $175,000 agreement with Dominick Tortorich to meet the winner of the European fight. If the European title battle winner refuses to come to America, Dempsey said he is willing to go to London or Paris for the fight. The champion is enroute to Los Angeles to fill a movie contract.

State Has Edge On Illinois Eleven

Ohio State—29; Michigan—3.
Ohio State—20; Purdue—0.
Ohio State—3; Wisconsin—0.
State—38; Opponents—3.
Illinois—29; Michigan—7.
Illinois—14; Purdue—7.
Illinois—10; Wisconsin—14.
Illinois—43; Opponents—24.

Ohio State and Illinois, teams which will meet at Ohio Field, Columbus next Saturday, in a game that will decide if State is to win the Western Conference football championship, have met three times this year.

Against Michigan, Purdue and Wisconsin, State has shown a defense far superior to that displayed against these same teams by Illinois, as the above table of scores will show, and this point may win for State in the crucial game of the season Saturday.

There seems no doubt now that State and Illinois are the best teams in the Big Ten. Although defeated by Wisconsin, Illinois has come back since then and licked Chicago, Minnesota and Michigan.

But every team that has played Illinois this year, except Chicago, has been able to pierce the defense of Bob Zupke's men for six points or more.

Only three points have been scored against State all year, and that by Michigan, when Michigan was at her best. Since State beat Michigan the Wolverines have gone back quite a bit.

Illinois has come forward offensively since being defeated by Wisconsin, but her defense has remained loose, and State should score next Saturday.

Wisconsin scored two touchdowns against Illinois, but could do no more than threaten to score against State Saturday.

State, it is true, could not score a touchdown, and had to win through Harley kicking a field goal in the last quarter.

But the point is that State evidently is a better defensive team than Illinois and should not have to score much to win next Saturday.

Illinois may enter Saturday's game with Ralph Fletcher, their star back, out of the game nursing injuries received in last week's encounter with Michigan. If Fletcher is out the Illinois offense is likely to be reduced quite a bit.

ASHLAND WINS

ASHLAND, Nov. 19.—St. Edward's Preparatory college football team lost to Ashland High school yesterday afternoon by the score of 7 to 6. The game was hard fought throughout. Neither side scored during the first half. St. Edward's holding once on the one-yard line, while Ashland held on the four-yard line during the second quarter.

This curiosity of language was noticed by linguists once spectroscopists proved that iron is seen in every direction in the sidereal (fixed) universe.

PENNY ANTE

To Decide Championship

Sunday afternoon the football championship of Southern Ohio will be settled on the Millbrook gridiron, when the N. & W. eleven and Wellston's crack warriors battle.

It will be the fastest game of the season, as both teams have been going great this season and are evenly matched. The locals have not had their goal crossed here this season and will do their utmost to keep Wellston from putting a score across Sunday.

Wellston is represented by one of the best teams in the history of the town. The two Pope brothers, who have played Sunday football since leaving high school several years ago, played with the locals when they played in Columbus early in the season. They form a fighting pair of warriors who will be ably assisted by Jones, a former Ohio University man, and Gallagher a former Marietta man.

The locals will have their hands full Sunday when they try to put a victory over on the Wellston side Sunday afternoon, the game to be started at 2:30, sharp.

The N. & W. team will practice tomorrow night, at 6:45 and every player should be on hand.

HARLEY MUST SHOW HIS "DAD" OR PLAY HOME SWEET HOME IN WOODSHED

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19.—It will be the woodshed Saturday night for Chick Harley if he doesn't deliver against Illinois. His father will be at the game and he has given advance notice of what will happen if Chick doesn't live up to his expectations.

Mr. Harley and Chick's brother, who went to Madison to see Chick play against the Badgers, came back to Chicago on the Ohio State special Saturday night. The game was the second day night. The game was the second day night. The game was the second day night.

THIRD PLACE MONEY BEING HELD UP

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Failure of the national baseball commission to award third place money in the last world series to the New York Americans was the subject of the discussion at a special meeting of the directors of the American League here today.

The meeting was called by the majority directors—Jacob Ruppert, of New York; Harry Frazee, of Boston, and Charles Comiskey, of Chicago.

The New York Club was officially awarded third place at a recent special meeting of the directors and a resolution was adopted authorizing the national commission to pay the Yankees their share of the series proceeds. Detroit, however, protested against the award, claiming that the game in which Carl Mays pitched should not be counted in New York's standing.

VARGA DEFEATS FOX AT ASHTABULA

ASHTABULA, O., Nov. 19.—Charles Fox, of Cleveland, claimant of middleweight wrestling championship, who lost more than a dozen matches, participated in here, had only one fall to his credit prior to last night, went down to defeat at the hands of Joe Varga, of Portsmouth, claimant of international 175 pound championship. Three falls were necessary to decide the contest, the first going to Varga in 42 minutes and 10 seconds on a headlock and body scissors. Fox rallied in the next period, taking the second fall on a toe hold in but five minutes and 10 seconds. In the last period Varga topped the mat over determined then ever to end the match quickly and got Fox out of the running with a half Nelson and crotch hold in 10 minutes and 30 seconds.

Name Made No Difference.

A little miss was visiting at a home where two elderly women were staying. One had a name readily remembered, but the other had an unusual one. Upon being presented to the little girl looked pensively for a moment, but she quickly solved her difficulty by saying: "How are you, Dr. Williams B. and Dr. Williams B.?"

Novelty Seen Wears Off.

Loyalty Is First Demand.

Business presents untold opportunities, magnificent possibilities; but the only man who ever succeeds for himself or deserves promotion from any one else is the man who is loyal.

What They May Claim.

Pennsylvania claims to contain the Heracles of the nation as well as the Vulcan. New York will no doubt put in a claim as: Midas of the land, Washington as the Jupiter, Doreas as the Minerva, and Okaloosa, Iowa, as the Venus. And Chicago, with its changes of weather at each performance, will put in its claim as the Mercur.

Bowling

Thanks to the spectacular work of William N. Zollmann, the Lemons of the Masonic League, managed to win one of their three games with the Diamonds at the Pennant alleys, last night.

Mr. Zollmann came through with a double century score in his good preliminaries, a dandy semi-final will be put on when Jack O'Boyle and Frankie Ross meet for six rounds of boxing. These boys are fast and clever and will, no doubt, give a splendid exhibition of the fist art.

The final between Joe Varga and John Ellis, the 175 pound Greek champion, should be a hammer, as Ellis comes here with a reputation as an expert on the mat and he is kept to the local man's measure. Ellis holds the belt as champion in his class and will outweigh Varga by about ten pounds. This will probably be one of the best matches of the season.

Varga's defeat of Charles E. Fox, of Ashtabula last night, stamps the local man as a contender for the National Championship belt soon to be awarded by the Police Gazette, and the winner of the match tonight will have some good men to go up against in the near future and both men are sure to work hard to get the verdict.

Leave the game at the beginning of the last game it is quite possible the result would have been reversed, for he went nicely in his middle game and seemed to have the range down fine. Donald Ives, of the Diamonds, was the second best of the evening, getting a total of 472 and showed that he was going to make his team a most valuable member. Edward Rieker, of the Lemons, was third best marksmen, finishing with 430 or one more than the president of the organization, Clarence E. Noller. Anchor Man Johnson started out nicely and kept up his speed until the last game when he hit the lumps and found the rest of the journey very rugged indeed. The scores:

Instead of candles, Lucille's mother placed six large marshmallows on top of her birthday cake. When Miss Doris returned from the party her mother said: "Well, did you all have a really good time?" and she replied: "Yes, all but the cake. Oh, mother, that cake looked so bad, just like a cemetery. It had little tombstones on it."

Swift Locomotion.

Men can run about 32 feet a second, that being the world's record for a hundred yard sprint. Contrary to common supposition, skaters are as swift as runners, the world's records for both being precisely the same—92.8 seconds for a hundred yards. Runners on skis have, however, made as much as 72 feet a second, and in stepping on skis more than 100 feet a second is attained.

Chinese Music Unwritten.

Chinese music is not written. The words of some of the famous songs have been preserved, but the music has been handed down from father to son for generations that go far back before the day of the troubadour. When music is played it is played according to the memory of the musician and his ideas of interpretation. A musician varies the performance as his best judgement dictates, and the strings, reeds or brass may break it at almost any time.

First Printed Book.

According to Petegren, the first book printed in type was the Latin Bible. It was printed by John Gutenberg at Mayence, about 1455. There are only 20 copies of this edition known to exist, and the workmanship in type, ink, and paper, were better than in any subsequent edition for two hundred years.

WILL CARE FOR HER OWN

SOME citizens of New Boston are objecting to inclusion in the largest Portsmouth on the plea that the new village portion will not be treated fairly by the older city parts, while others are asking assurance that it will have equal treatment.

The first are wrong while the others need have no uneasiness whatsoever. Boundary lines will be eliminated when the Poorless stretches from the big to the little Scioto. The city will be improved and equipped as the need for them arises and is most important and urgent at the time, and not because they are desired in a particular section.

As confounding of this we may point out, not as the person of careless thought and speech would put it, handsomely and liberally but in simple justice, how the most recently annexed territory is being treated. Part of the Scioto Trail and all of Cole's boulevard and Micklethwait addition are the outskirts of this new territory. They are being supplied with water, gas and electric service and will have paved streets just as soon as conditions justify and legislation can be had.

Portsmouth will do equally well with the territory over which she wishes to expand. That much can be counted upon to a certainty, because as this is being written two hundred and more of Portsmouth's best and most progressive citizens are giving earnestly and energetically of their time to the organization of a chamber of commerce, the sole purpose of which is a bigger, better and brighter Portsmouth. The acquisition of a few more acres of territory will not advantage her. She must have homes and people on the lots therein. She can not be better unless she makes advancement along civic lines. She can not be brighter if she does not treat every citizen and every section in justice and equity.

Bear in mind that the chamber of commerce is going to have a new spirit and a new mind in it and above all a new and mighty power of accomplishment. If it stands not for a growing Portsmouth, for the promotion of the comfort and contentment of every citizen, for equal privileges and advantages to all, then it will fail miserably in its mission, but it is not going to fail.

And just remember this people of New Boston and of Scioto-ville and the contiguous territory as well: There is a law on the statute books which directs that in the matter of such utilities as water, gas, electricity, all parts of the city shall be served alike. And it isn't necessary to "go to law" to have that law enforced. A simple and inexpensive presentation of the situation to the state authorities will bring relief.

So come in and welcome as citizens, neighbors and brothers, all under one roof and all enjoying the strength and advantages that a right union brings.

May be she's just about right, but from this short distance it looks as though Huntington is getting too all-fired good. We have heard of such things and hating the sale of gasoline on Sunday looks like it. Posing as something of a theologian we can't see where it is any worse to sell gasoline on Sunday than to burn it. Fact is financially the latter is just fifty times worse, considering you pay 25 1-2 cents a gallon and the dealer makes a half cent profit.

Certainly the opposition finds fault with the administration for taking over the railroads and its management thereof, but if one be such a blunder and the other so great a failure, why all this dodging and ducking to hold off the immediate return of the roads to their company management, as the administration proposes?

It is an inspiring sight to see two hundred men, whose affairs are at least of average importance, laying them aside and going out to work for all the others of the community. It puzzles more why there are some who will not even give the little asked of them and when they are altogether able.

Only a little better than a month, a week and a day, since Cincinnati won the world's championship and yet it is quite as a thing forgot and that was not.

If Princeton hadn't won over Yale some papers would have been laying its defeat up to Wilson because he was former president of that university.

Secretary Wilson told both sides what was what, but so far it doesn't appear to have gotten either anywhere except right where it was.

Lightless nights, sugarless and fuelless days—well that is enough to make us serious for a while.

It is an old story, but again, 'tis said shoes are to be scarcer and higher.

THE MARRIED MAN AND THE AVERAGE MAN

I am rejoicing in my work! It is, I am almost ready to admit, the one perfectly satisfactory thing in my married life. There were any number of interesting letters today from the "Messengers" of whose "Correspondence Corner" I am the able conductor. In solving other people's problems I help solve my own.

Judging from the walls sent in by subscribers to the "Messenger," there is about one happy marriage to fifty "get-along-somehow's."

I notice, too, from these letters that it usually takes the test of something big troubles to prove a man and woman are truly mated.

As I look over my diary it seems full of bickering. Yet things are not always bad between us by any means.

There are fairly long periods when all is right between us. Jim's affairs run comfortably. I have my work, my household duties, which I really enjoy, my friendly outings with Athena, and always, always the glory of this great seething city about me, with its thrills and interests, its brilliant life and hurry, its novelty, its constant change and color.

I often wonder if the little spells of happiness are not what make married life so wearing sometimes! If things always went badly, if husbands and wives were always quarrelsome and unappreciative, it would be easier to right matters. One is atrociously treated—and one runs away. But one cannot go away when one knows the trouble is only temporary. One battles through it somehow and emerges on the other side, wiser and sadder.

It often happens that in the morning I am so unhappy it seems as if I cannot get through the day. But by the time I have plunged into work, gotten absorbed in it, finished it, gone for a walk, taken tea with Athena or at one of the great, glittering hotels on Broadway and come back to my cheery little home, perhaps to find Jim already there, with a bunch of roses or an armful of fruit, things are mended again. Until the next time.

That is why big troubles are sometimes easier to bear and sooner vanquished than little ones.

A great trouble carries with it a sort of opposing force. The very overwhelmingness of it makes you fight it. And when it is not possible to be rid of it, you find in your mad rebellion some way of escape. You make a clean cut, and it's over.

Not so with petty trials. They take your strength and courage, without bringing any bracing reaction. They are not big enough to perform a major operation on. They are too persistent to give you peace. You just go on standing them, never unbecomingly miserable, but never happy, until you become a sort of chronic victim, a spiritual invalid lamed by matrimony!

I simply won't be it! I would rather be a complete matrimonial failure, acknowledge my error and take a fresh start than limp along through life and make Jim limp, too, by dragging him into it.

The pebble in my shoe just is—Edie Sands. Jim would have me ignore it. Just as if one could ignore a pebble in one's shoe!

Well, I am not the sort of woman even to try it. I must more freely. I have to kick off my shoes and walk alone and with unprotected feet!

New - York - Day - By - Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 19—

The street lamps were

Winking through the dusk

And the great buildings

Disgorge human ants.

Hansom's slid along

On a velvet like street

And broodings and landaus.

And ponderous limousines.

Flash'd glimpses of furs.

And silks and jewels.

While the newshy.

Howled the tragedies.

Of a world gone mad.

In their husky whines.

And a cold wind.

Fresh from the north.

Whipped through the air.

And collars turned up.

And steps were quickened.

And on the corner I saw them.

A man and a girl.

And he talked fast.

And made rapid gestures.

And finally she winced.

And turned from him.

Like some dumb creature.

Struck a great blow.

And he watched her.

For a short while.

Gave a cold-hearted shrug.

Like the villain in the play.

And walked on his way.

And I couldn't help.

But notice her tired face.

Her rolled pink blouse.

Her run-over shoes.

Her chalky complexion.

And I followed her.

Through the homegoing crowds.

And twice I passed her.

And looked back.

And she seemed lost.

To the world about her.

And I fancied.

Tears were glistening.

On long black lashes.

As they do in the novels.

And I finally went up to her.

And lifted my hat and said:

"Is there something I can do?"

And she looked at me.

And said: "Yes."

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAYS NEWS

OSCAR W. UNDERWOOD
Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama probably will become Democratic leader in the senate to succeed the late Senator Thomas B. Martin of Virginia in the opinion of many of the Democratic members of the senate.

Because of the fact that to other business men a that of the treaty of peace is to come before the senate at this session, it is possible that the Democratic caucus to elect a new minority leader may be postponed until the beginning of the next session, but in any event, it would be a surprise to the senate should any other man than Underwood be chosen for the place.

When Underwood came to the senate in 1915, preceded by a reputation as a tariff and financial expert because of his work on the Underwood-Simmons law, the first Democratic tariff bill in years, he was virtually put in Coventry by the veteran senators of the Democratic party, who desired to show him his place and who were fearful that this new, young senator might displace them as leaders in legislative work.

But despite this apparent snub, which relegated Underwood to the obscurity of all younger members, he steadily fought his way upward, and finally, after a great deal of hard work, gained recognition on the Democratic side as one of the best debaters in his party, one of the soundest thinkers and one of the most indefatigable workers.

The attention of Senator Martin was attracted to him because of his work on the appropriations committee, and when Martin began to show the strain of too much work during the strenuous days of the war session, Martin began to depend more and more on Underwood for support and aid. In the closing days of the last session Underwood did virtually all the work of majority leader of the senate, although Martin remained nominally in charge.

Senator Underwood is a native of Kentucky, having been born at Louisville in 1862. He was admitted to the bar in 1884, and has since practiced law at Birmingham.

Before going to the senate in 1915 he represented his district in the lower house for twenty years. He was a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1912.

"You can mind your business."

"You fresh thing."

And that ended the whole thing.

Need Not Wait For Record.

It should be remembered that Mr. John F. Kramer, of Ohio, the new Federal Prohibition Commissioner, was appointed to that position by the president, and was not elected in the Ohio election on November 4.—Kansas City Star.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—The Liberals of the country contend that at no time have more than 24 states actually ratified the Federal amendment. A statement issued at the Cincinnati office of the Ohio Home Rule Association yesterday. "We assert this because we know that in 11 states of the 42, whose general assembly has acted on the amendment, referendum petitions have been filed. We know that an referendum in one of these 11 states, Ohio, the people have rejected the Federal amendment. The people in ten others are to act in November, 1920. Until every factor or branch of the amendment is approved by the states, the Federal amendment cannot function on the Federal amendment and the people by right of amendment are a part of the 'Legislature.' In these states will not have acted on the Federal amendment, only a part of this 'Legislature.'"

Thomas M. Hare, District Superintendent of the Anti Saloon League, does not agree with George S. Hawley in the contention that because the people of Ohio voted against Federal ratification, and as Ohio is one of the states named in the Polk proclamation, therefore, Federal constitution prohibition does not go into effect January 16, 1920, as proclaimed and that a new proclamation will be necessary.

Y. W. C. A. conferences which have recently been held and attended by local representatives are to be brought home to all those who are interested in a meeting this afternoon... Blue Triangle Room, Galia street, at 2 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend the meeting which promises to be interesting. The National Conference is being held at Columbia College, Chicago, Ill., from Sept. 10 to 14.

With consideration for the future of the Blue Triangle in Portsmouth and interest in advancing its various phases of activities for girls in the city, some thirty-four or more girls, representing every business of the city, gathered together at the Blue Triangle rooms Monday evening and formed the nucleus of an industrial girls' recreational club.

Miss Carol Simmons, recreational director, laid the plan of organizing a club before the girls and met with unanimous response.

From the discussion, the girls were in favor of the organization as a means of stimulating and keeping the interest in the Blue Triangle would give the girls a chance where they really wanted to be. It was stressed that democracy was the keynote of the club, that there would be no change in the "openness" but that each girl would feel free to hostess and would exercise responsibility in seeing that she entered the room was pleasantly welcomed. A delicious supper was served to the girls. The city are asked to meet at the Blue Triangle room Monday evening next week at 7:30 to talk over plans.

A young man giving the name of Arthur Means was arrested in Wellston yesterday. He is being held on a charge of having killed Alonzo Blackman in Cleveland several days ago. Means admitted that the trouble started over a dice game and he stabbed Blackman after knocking him down several times.
